YANK TROOPS IN RED TRAP

Tank-Led Frontal Assault Underway

TOKYO, July 6—(Thursday)—Tank-led Communist forces today struck hard at South Korean troops on the front south of Suwon, outflanking an advanced American unit and threatening a whole important defence sector.

A statement from Gen. MacArthur's headquarters said that Communist trrops, pressing south from Suwon, had moved forward 11 miles, forcing the South Koreans onto high ground north of Osan, 23 miles south of fallen Seoul.

It added: "North Korean forces continue to press the South Koreans from the north while at the same time extending their columns around the east flank of the defending forces with the apparent objective of cutting off the avenue of retreat.

Anxious air officers waited for a break in bad weather to loose their aircraft for attacks on the invaders. Yesterday Australian and American fighters struck at the advancing columns, while British and American planes from carriers hit targets in North Korea.

MacArthur's latest communique did not mention the plight of American troops trapped by North Korean tanks. The Americans, first to see ground action in Korea, knocked out two invading tanks before they found themselves encircled and cut off from support position.

Reds Massing Troops

In teeming rain the main front-line force of Americans called up reinforcements of men and anti-tank weapons to stiffen the front for the inevitable clash, now hourly awaited.

MacArthur's communique confirmed a gathering threat of Communist forces east of Suwon, apparently designed to lop off this whole sector of the front. That would open the way for a drive on Taejon, military centre 73 miles south of Suwon.

The northerners were pouring more troops and arms across the Han just south of Seoul despite repeated air strikes on the rail lines stretching north of the city.

A constant stream of U.S. reinforcements was flowing into South Korea from Japan by air and sea, the communique reported.

The setback on the Suwon front came after the Communist tanks apparently had been turned back by the fire of U.S. artillery.

A spokesman at advanced American headquarters said there was a chance the Americans could still withdraw safely from the Communist pocket. The Americans, setting up a position south of fallen Suwon, had met a North Korean spearhead of eight tanks with artillery fire which knocked out two of the invaders.

Tanks Wheel, Attack

Front dispatches said the surviving Communist tanks wheeled suddenly and rammed themselves between the infantry position and its supporting artillery and supplies.

A source at Gen. MacArthur's headquarters here estimated that three or four North Korean divisions were being poured into the outflanking operation. They were under fire from American and Australian fighter planes.

Aircraft from the British carrier Triumph and the American carrier Valley Forge struck farther north. In attacks on the North Korean capital of Pyongyang they destroyed two Russian-built Yak fighters in the air, strafed eight aircraft on the ground and heavily damaged air installations. All the attackers returned safely to their carriers.

Prior to the announcement of carrier operations, MacArthur's headquarters reported American planes had destroyed seven and damaged four North Korean aircraft.

MacArthur's communique reported that the Reds had lost, in addition to the seven destroyed planes, eight armored cars, 119 trucks, 22 locomotives, 18 box cars and seven tanks.

Warships accounted for six Red trawlers and five motor torpedo boats. Two other Communist vessels were damaged.

Aiming At Triangle

Gen. MacArthur confirmed the fall of Suwon to the Communists during the day.

His communique, which estimated the Korean spearhead at three to four divisions (a North Korean division numbers 10,000 men), said the invaders were taking part in an "enveloping" movement against the Seoul-Inchon-Suwon triangle which embraces more than 200 square miles.

A steady movement of American troops and supplies continued from Japan to South Korea.

MacArthur was building up a vast array of power for the Korean war. Despatches from the United States said more B-29s were sent from March Field, Calif., and Spokane, Wash.

The U.S. carrier Sicily sailed from San Diego yesterday for an undisclosed destination, presumably the war zone. The carriers Philippine Sea and Boxer are in San Diego being made ready.

A convoy of 25 Communist tanks was observed moving toward Seoul from Kaesong, the border city which fell on the first day of hostilities. This indicated a reinforced punch for the invading drive.

The Red Pyongyang radio claimed, without confirmation, that Communist forces which landed amphibiously on the southeast coast had pushed inland 15 miles in an attempt to reach Taegu and to sever American rail and highway communications northward from the beachhead at Pusan.

CANADIAN SHIPS READY FOR WAR

Post-Holiday Check-Up Shows Low Box Office

NEW YORK, July 5.—(UP)—The dwindling box office was a stark reality in sports today after the July 4 celebrations.

Baseball attendance fell off from last year's holiday. So did racing. What's more, last year's figures were off from the year before—and so the worry is when the diminishing returns stop.

A total of 202,714 saw seven major league doubleheaders—one was rained out—making an average of 28,959 as compared with last year's average of 32,097.

The largest crowd yesterday was a near capacity 49,316 at the Polo Grounds in New York to see the Giants play Brooklyn.

Fifteen race tracks drew 274,225 who bet $11,347,149, as against 244,064 who bet $11,731,607 at only 13 tracks last year.

In all, about a million persons celebrated the fourth at sports events.

ELK ISLAND MUSEUM START SET THIS YEAR

Resources minister Winters announced here today that arrangements have been made to build this year the first unit of the Elk Island national park historical museum.

The museum project will commemorate the early Ukrainian settlement of the northern Alberta district. It will consist of three units.

The first, a replica of the early Ukrainian farm home, will house exhibits of early household furnishings as well as farm tools and equipment.

The second unit will be a large modern structure to contain other historical exhibits and specimens of the Flora and Fauna of Elk Island National Park. This building will also serve as a central community hall.

The third unit will be a replica of old Fort Victoria.

The establishment as a whole will be designated as a memorial to the life and service of Dr. A. E. Archer, a pioneer medical man of Northern Alberta, described by Mr Winters as "one of the most public-spirited Canadians of his generation."

The Markets At a Glance

NEW YORK, July 5.—(AP)—The stock market responded readily to demand today.

Gains ranged to more than $1 a share. Steels, aircraft, and selected auto and rail issues were among the stronger spots. A good part of the gains were scored during the afternoon.

Business was on the slow side through the day. Turnover dropped to a rate of about 1,400,000 shares for the full session. Last week, when prices were sliding at top speed, sales topped 2,500,000 shares every day in the week.

★ ★ ★

MONTREAL, July 5.—(CP)—Prices steadily declined for the third consecutive day under fairly heavy selling on the Montreal stock exchange and curb market today.

Declines ranging from small fractions to more than a point generally dominated the list near the final hour. There were a few moderate advances.

Volume was heavier than in the last two sessions and showed industrials with 63,300 shares traded and mines 530,600 shares.

★ ★ ★

TORONTO, July 5.—(CP)—Market leaders turned slightly lower after showing firmer tendencies on the Toronto Stock Exchange today. Activity was brisk as key stocks brightened in early dealings. A mild increase in selling late in the day depressed prices. Volume was about 2,450,000.

A wide list of industrial stocks were lower. Utilities showed an almost solid front of declines and papers, steels, constructions, refining oils and textiles dipped.

Rough Riders To Get Pair

OTTAWA, July 5.—(CP)—Executive of the Ottawa Rough Riders of the Big Four football league said today that two former Villanova University stars who have signed 1950 playing contracts will report for training July 17, despite threats to sue by Cleveland Browns of the National football league.

The players are John Sandusky, towering end, and Tom Clavin, a half-back. Villanova University is near Philadelphia.

After Rider officials announced the players had signed 1950 contracts, Paul Brown, coach and general manager of the Cleveland Browns, said the pair already signed Brownie contracts and had "accepted bonuses."

Australia's Forde In City

Right Hon. F. M. Forde, high commissioner for Australia in Canada, will arrive in Edmonton today by air from Ottawa, on his first visit to the Canadian northwest.

Thursday morning, after spending the night at the RCAF station here, he will fly on to Whitehorse, returning Friday by way of Watson Lake, Fort Nelson and Fort St. John.

Mr. Forde will fly from Edmonton to Calgary, Saturday, to see the opening of the Stampede, and will return to Edmonton on Tuesday, July 11.

Sedgman To Battle American

Wimbledon Final Slated for Play Friday Morning

WIMBLEDON, July 5.—(CP)—Frank Sedgman of Australia, and Budge Patty of the United States, will play for the men's Wimbledon tennis title which Ted Schroeder is not defending.

Patty stopped Vic Seixas of Philadelphia, 6-3, 5-7, 6-2, 7-5 and Sedgman won a five-set classic from Jaroslav Drobny, self-exiled Czech, 3-6, 3-6, 6-3, 7-5, 6-2.

It was the second consecutive day that Sedgman had come from behind a two-set deficit.

Patty will meet Sedgman Friday morning.

Mrs. Pat Todd of La Jolla, Calif., made certain today that an American girl would win the women's singles title by defeating Mrs. Betty Hilton Harrison of Britain, 6-2, 6-2, in a quarter-final match.

Doris Hart of Jacksonville, Fla., defeated Barbara Scofield of San Francisco, 6-1, 6-1, in another quarter-final round contest.

Louise Brough, the defending champion from Beverly Hills, Calif., also moved into the semi-finals with a 2-6, 6-3, 6-0, conquest of Shirley Fry of Akron, O.

Mrs. Margaret Osborne Dupont, the American titleholder from Wilkington, Del., gained the fourth semi-final position by defeating Gertrude (Gussie) Moran of Santa Monica, Calif., 6-4, 6-4.

SEEDINGS HOLD

Thus the seedings held in the women's play. Miss Brough is No. 1, Mrs. Dupont No. 2, Miss Hart No. 3, and Mrs. Todd No. 4.

In a women's doubles third-round match Mrs. Richard Buck and Nancy Chaffee defeated Dorothy Head and Betty Rosenquest 6-1, 8-6.

In the men's doubles quarter-finals, Geoff Brown and Bill Sidwell topped Vladimir Cernik and M. Matous 7-5, 6-2, 6-1.

Rutten Takes Lead In Golf

Gordon Rutten, smooth shotmaker from Lethbridge, carried a one-hole advantage into the final round of the Alberta Country Districts Golf Championship match today as he teed-off at 1 p.m. against youthful Bob Macdonald of Medicine Hat.

Ending the first 18 holes of the final shortly before noon today, Rutten made a strong comeback on the back nine at Edmonton's Country Club after spotting Macdonald a two-hole advantage in the first nine of the day.

Macdonald took the lead as soon as play got underway this morning when he came within an inch of acing the 140-yard second hole.

Rutten came back strong to cop the 10, 11, 12 and 13 holes.

The match was all even after the 17th and Rutten took the 18th with a par three to go one up when lunch was called.

Following the final in this match today, the first round of the Willingdon Cup matches, with 30 entries, will get underway.

TROON, Scotland, July 5.—Arthur Lees, British Ryder cup golfer, shot a 68 early today and saw his score stand up all through day as the best that 93 shotsmiths could produce in the first round of the British open tournament.

Johnny Bulla, Pittsburgh pro, and Johnny McHale, Philadelphia amateur, carded 73s—the best the U.S. contingent could do over Troon's testing 6,583 yards.

Frank Stranahan of Toledo, Ohio, who won the British amateur title last month, needed 43 strokes on the out nine but came up with a 77.

Bobby Locke, the South African who is defending champion, came in with a 69, one stroke off the lead.

More than 2,000 fans followed the Stranahan-Locke twosome. The weather was cloudy and threatening and a tricky breeze swept the course.

Inside Hollywood

By Bob Thomas

HOLLYWOOD — (AP) — Patricia Medina gives us a peek behind the silk curtain that has cloaked the filming of Rudolph Valentino's life.

The shooting of the Latin Lover's life has been, as the cliche goes, shrouded in secrecy. Press correspondents have been banned from the set. The script was said to be guarded like a copy of "Handy Hints for Making H-Bombs."

So I was glad to smuggle one of the picture's stars, Patricia Medina, out of the studio during the lunch hour. "Have you been sworn to secrecy?" I whispered.

"Not that I know of," said the beauteous brunette.

"Well, have you seen the script—the whole script?"

"Oh yes. I read it all before I took the part."

BANNED FROM SET

"Isn't the press banned from the set?"

"Come to think of it, I haven't seen any there."

"Isn't the set excessively guarded?"

"No, there's just the usual policeman—a nice old gent of 72."

Miss Medina said that Tony Dexter, who portrays Valentino, has a remarkable resemblance to the famed Latin. "Poor boy," she added, "all he has to do is make love. He makes love in the scenes from the old pictures and he makes love in the scenes of Valentino's real life."

She reported that she had just seen rushes of a love scene she did with him. "I was dissapointed," she said. "I wanted to do the scene while reclining, but they propped me up on a couple of pillows. Love making has to be vertical, they said."

She said that most of the characters in the film will be fictional and Valentino's wives will not be portrayed.

GOOD AND BAD

"Eleanor Parker plays a combination of all the good women he knew," she said, "and I play all the bad women. I nearly land him at the end of the picture, but he dies. This happens to me all the time.

Attlee Wants British Force In Korea War

LONDON, July 5—(UP)—Prime Minister Clement R. Attlee denounced the Communist invasion of South Korea as "naked aggression" today and asked parliament to approve sending British ships and planes into the fray.

Attlee said the whole world was indebted to the United States for its swift action against the invaders because every nation "would be in danger if an aggressor were allowed to get away with . . . aggression in any part of the world."

The prime minister spoke at the opening of debate on the Korean war. The government faces a confidence vote tonight, sure of support from the opposition but uncertain of the attitude of the Labor party's own left wing.

Attlee asked Commons to approve a motion "that this house fully supports the action taken by His Majesty's government, in conformity with their obligations under the United Nations charter, in helping to resist the unprovoked aggression against the Republic of Korea."

Retreat In Korea Said Rout By Correspondent

By O. H. P. King

AN ADVANCE AMERICAN COMMAND HEADQUARTERS IN SOUTH KOREA, July 5.—(AP)—Here is a picture of war's desolation in South Korea:

Thousands of South Korean army troops in retreat—some call it a rout.

More thousands of bewildered civilian refugees, some trudging in one direction, others going the opposite way. All are laden with pitifully-small bundles.

War planes have passed this way, their guns raking the road.

The dead still lie along the roadway, and the wounded cry for aid and are ignored.

ABANDONED VEHICLES

Score of abandoned vehicles are along this highway which several other correspondents and I have just travelled 180 miles through the nightmare area. Some have been strafed and burned, others have run off the road.

Amid this scene of refugee turmoil, Gen. MacArthur's headquarters communique warned that numbers of north Korean troops in civilian clothes were slipping south on missions of sabotage and espionage.

(The flight of civilians also was occurring north of the front, in areas already seized by the invaders. American fliers returning to bases in Japan said they saw the highways east of Red-conquered Seoul jammed with thousands of refugees.)

COLUMNS OF SMOKE

We saw bombs drop on a front-line city and black columns of smoke arise.

Four north Korean Yak fighter planes dived at a target near us. we were lucky we escaped unhurt.

A wounded man lay moaning by the road, his ox and cart not far away in a rice paddy field. Nobody paid any attention to him until we stopped. He had wounds in the head, back, shoulder and body.

At one point was the ruins of a railroad station where planes had strafed an ammunition train, blowing it to bits.

RIFLES MINUS BOLTS

We saw several battalions of completely-uniformed south Korean troop trainees, all carrying rifles that used to belong to the Japenese army. But the rifles all were minus their vital bolts.

Nearly every type of Korean vehicle was on the road, camouflaged with green boughs and yet clearly and proudly displaying the south Korean republic flag.

Sometimes trains on a nearby track stopped to pick up military stragglers and refugees then proceeded slowly south, their rooftops crowded with civilians, and soldiers packed within the cars.

No matter what their retreat is called officially, military men would call it a rout.

Three other passengers in the car, including driver Victor Letawsky, 8730-79 avenue, also suffered minor face cuts.

Police said the car's front axel hit the man-hole cover and man-hole seating, ripping it loose and pushing it forward 18 inches after striking a hole in the road.

The impact forced Gaul's head against the windshield.

There was heavy damage to the undercarriage of the car.

The school continues throughout today, Thursday and Friday.

Ex-Constable Exonerated

Former police Constable John R. Boyle was exonerated in police court Tuesday of a charge of dangerous driving.

He was the second former member of the force to appear before Magistrate S. G. Main within one week in connection with an incident in front of City Park Grocery, 114 avenue and 79 street, June 10 last. Both constables left the force as a result of the incident.

Former Constable Donald Morrison was found guilty and fined $25 last Wednesday for pointing a firearm, allegedly at a group of boys outside the store. The men were not in uniform at the time.

OUT OF ALIGNMENT

Only witness presented by defence counsel Neil Maclean, KC, Tuesday was mechanic David George Keith. He testified that the wheels on Boyle's car were out of alignment at the time of the alleged dangerous driving and could have screeched rounding a corner at a speed as low as 15 m.p.h.

Magistrate Main found that Boyle had rounded the corner at 30 m.p.h. but said that this didn't necessarily constitute dangerous driving.

Truck Injures St. Albert Boy

A nine-year-old St. Albert boy was badly injured yesterday afternoon when he was knocked down by a truck on the St. Albert Bridge.

Victim of the accident, Leonard L'Hirondelle, was taken to General hospital in Edmonton where his condition this morning was stated as "very serious."

Driver of the truck was John Cameron of Calgary.

North Youth Gets Award For Bravery

Royal Canadian Humane Association has awarded a certificate to a McMurray youth for his heroic action in saving a friend from drowning.

James McGuiness, son of Mr. and Mrs. Steve McGuiness, McMurray, saved the life of Louis Waniandy, 22, when their canoe overturned at Pelican Rapids.

McGuiness went to the rescue of his friend, a non-swimmer, in the icy water and after several attempts dragged him to the capsized boat.

The pair righted the boat and managed to reach shore.

The rescuer graduated from St. Anthony's College, Edmonton, this year.

A three-year squabble between the city and squatters on Connor's hill property has come to a head.

Seven families have been given a month's notice by city officials to move their homes from property which will be needed for the new trolley bus route up the hill.

Grading of the new roadway, which will branch off from the present hill northwest toward the southeast end of the Low Level Bridge, is expected to start Aug. 1. Paving will be done next spring, in preparation for inauguration of trolley buses on the Bonnie Doon route when further paving work is finished on the route's southern end.

Residents of Connor's Road area have been on a monthly tenancy notice since city council last year authorized re-routing the Bonnie Doon bus route up the hill under the ski jump.

There have been periodic protests about the decision, and about the lack of public utilities in the area, for several years. But since the area is zoned as park, and the residents regarded by the city as squatters, the protests have fallen on relatively deaf ears.

Three shop-breaking escapades in Edmonton last month will cost an 18-year-old boy the next three months in prison.

Eugene Welk pleaded guilty to each charge when he appeared before Magistrate S. G. Main in Police Court this morning.

It was the youth's first offence, but assistant prosecutor Guy Beaudry warned there has been too much shopbreaking by youthful offenders recently. He said the crown wouldn't be satisfied with a lenient sentence.

Magistrate S. G. Main sentenced Welk to three months on each of the three charges but made the terms concurrent.

About 40 searchers are continuing their 'round the clock operations to recover the bodies of five men entombed three weeks ago in the Cadomin Coal Company mine at Cadomin.

Director of mines, John Crawford said today no bodies have been recovered as yet, although some of the equipment believed to belong to the dead miners has been found.

Packs of trained coyote hounds may be used this year in Alberta's war against coyotes.

Government officials said today the provincial government will pay 75 per cent of the cost of hunting coyotes with dogs, provided municipalities or farm organizations arrange the hunts and pay the remainder of the cost.

A similar arrangement was made last winter when airplane hunters were hired to shoot down coyotes in areas badly infested with the predators.

Alberta Choice Slice In Canada's Prosperity Pie

The best slice in the national pie is the way Alberta stacks up in the Canadian scene, H. A. Sandison, national advertising manager of 62 member Class 'A' Weeklies of Canada, said here today.

At the halfway mark in a tour from Toronto to Victoria and return, Mr. Sandison said his overall impression was of great prosperity.

He said he didn't see how Alberta could miss a great future.

"The tourist business at Banff and Jasper is tremendous, there's oil and wheat and beef cattle, it's almost monotonously rich," he commented.

Mr. Sandison said he based his optimistic appraisal of conditions in Canada generally on talks with merchants and editors of weekly papers during his tour.

"Business is good," he repeated. "I didn't hear one complaint."

He said another gauge of the country's prosperity was the volume of cash and carry sales reported. "It implies a flow of ready money," he pointed out.

GOODS HUNGRY

"People are hungry for fridges, radios, all the electrical appliances—and they've got the money for them once they get the power."

"If you've got something worthwhile to sell, the market is there," he asserted.

"Weekly newspapers themselves are gaining in circulation, getting wider distribution—and also doing a better job," he reported.

Bus Overturns

AVERILL, Vt., July 5 — (AP) — A Maine Central bus, loaded with women returning to Lewiston, Me., from a pilgrimage to the St. Anne de Beaupre Roman Catholic shrine in Quebec, overturned last night, injuring at least 38.

Drilling Rig Inside City —But Not In Oil Search

An oil drilling rig will be used here to make connections with a storm sewer 71 feet below downtown street level.

Assistant City Engineer P. L. Debney said today the rig will be set up at 6 a.m. Sunday in the lane behind the main post office.

An experimental plan, it will be used in other locations if successful.

Sunday's job will be to drill two six-inch holes from street level down 71 feet through the shell of the deep 54-inch storm sewer.

LOWER ENDS SECURED

Pipes will then be suspended from the surface and the lower ends secured to the sewer shell by men working inside.

Later the upper ends will be connected with a shallow sewer nearby, to provide an overflow from it to the lower sewer for storm relief only.

"It certainly will cost less and take far less time than digging a shaft 71 feet deep," said Mr. Debney.

Only hitch in the plans could come with heavy rains which would fill the deep sewer and make it imposible for men to work through it on the lower connection.

Reserve Payroll At Wainwright Totals $50,000

When 2,300 Western Command reserve force soldiers leave Wainwright military camp July 29, they will take home $50,000.

Royal Canadian Army Pay Corps officials at Edmonton command headquarters, estimated this figure for the camp which starts on July 9.

On completion of two weeks at camp, recruit privates, gunners or troopers will receive $31 for their practical training.

If they remain the additional week they receive another $15.

Other ranks' money rise accordingly.

The reservists will be paid at the end of each week of training.

Pro-Leopold Cabinet Given Confidence Vote

BRUSSELS, Belgium, July 5—(UP)—The Belgian senate brought the return of exiled King Leopold III a step closer today by giving the all-Catholic government a 90-83 confidence vote.

The House of Representatives took similar action last week.

Catholic sources said the pro-Leopold Social Christian party now is determined to speed the final step—repeal of the 1945 law barring Leopold from the throne. These sources said the party hoped to have Leopold return on Saturday.

Orange Lodge Stages Annual Parade Sunday

Members of the Loyal Orange Lodge will hold their annual parade on July 9.

Usual date is July 12, but as this occurs during the middle of the week, members have changed celebration plans to Sunday.

Over 300 are expected to participate. They will meet at the south side Orange Hall, 84 avenue and 103 street, and parade to Knox United Church, 84 avenue and 104 street, for service.

Route of the parade will be along 104 street to 82 avenue, west to 106 street, north to 84 avenue and then to the church.

On Saturday, July 8, the organization will sponsor a picnic at Borden Park.

July 12 celebrations will consist of a social and dance in the south side Orange Hall.

HOT EVENING GETS HOTTER

NEW YORK, July 5.—(AP)—It was only 79 degrees here last night, but in an apartment building on East 61st Street it was the hottest night of the year.

Police found an automatic coal furnace had built up about six times as much pressure as was needed for hot water.

Meat Packers Aid Boy Scouts In Siding 'Bee'

Twenty employes of Canada Packers last night placed siding on a Boy Scout building at 121 street and 109A avenue.

They responded to an appeal by their plant superintendent, Charles J. Long.

Mr. Long, president of the District Scouts, received the building on behalf of the movement from Edmonton Cosmopolitan Club in May.

When completed, the building will include an auditorium, board room, office and kitchen. It will be used for training of scout masters, patrol and troop leaders.

Engines Cause Some Excitement

The fire engines were more exciting than the fire at University Hospital at noon today.

The fire was doused almost instantly after flaring from a short circuit in the motor in the hospital laundry. Slight damage was caused.

But hospital alarms automatically draw four fire engines, and the sight of the red gleaming monsters at the start of the noon-hour meant the hospital was swamped with worried calls for almost half an hour.

Much Of Wheat In Shot Blade

Peace River Among Regions In Urgent Need Of Rainfall

About 40 per cent of Alberta's wheat crop is now in the shot blade, the department of agriculture crop report issued today said.

The shot blade is the blade which will later develop into the head of wheat.

Some areas of the province are in urgent need of rain, including the Peace River district and the territory west of a line between Ponoka to Cold Lake. Rain is also urgently needed in the area from Lethbridge northwest to Cayley.

Conditions in other areas are fairly satisfactory, but more rain will be needed to maintain crops.

Most crops in the province are considered to be in "fair" condition, but where rainfall has been scant some deterioration is evident.

HEIGHTS VARY

Wheat is now from four to 14 inches in height, and coarse grains vary in height from three to 12 inches.

Little hail damage has been reported. Some crops in the Cardston and Magrath districts of southern Alberta were destroyed by hail.

Cutworms are troublesome over wide areas, but grasshopper damage is limited to the south and eastern parts of the province.

Although rains improved some pastures, prospects for the hay crop are poor to fair only. Condition of livestock in all districts ranges from fair to good.

Butter and milk production is near last year's level, but has shown considerable decrease in comparison with 1948.

Record Warmth Spurs Hazard Of North Fires

Record high temperatures in Alberta have sent the fire hazard soaring in the northern bush areas of the province.

New fires broke out yesterday south of Kinuso, near Flatbush, north of Wabiskow, near Fort Assiniboine and north of Edson, provincial forestry officials reported.

Meanwhile, a major blaze continues to burn through pine and spruce stands in the far north of the province, near Embarras Portage.

Bulldozers are being used to throw up fire breaks at the Fort Assiniboine and Flatbush fires, with four men holding the Flatbush blaze in check, and a dozen men at work on the Fort Assiniboine fire.

Not a Red Herring?

If any bitter opponent of the Detwiler Miracle Mile plan wanted to employ unscrupulous methods to defeat that plan he would ring in some alternative offer, semi-real or wholly mythical, to delay and confuse Edmonton's decision because he would know that, with other cities clamoring for the same deal, the Detwiler backers cannot afford to dilly-dally with the Edmonton proposal indefinitely.

Therefore, knowing that the Journal newspaper is violently and unreasonably opposed to the Detwiler city centre plan, Edmonton citizens will look with some suspicion at the story carried by the Journal to the effect that Eastern Canadian interests are prepared to make a similar offer on better terms.

They will be all the more suspicious of the Journal's glowing story when spokesmen for the city call it "absolute nonsense."

We are not suggesting, of course, that it is absolutely impossible that such an offer could be made by Eastern Canadian interests.

But it seems odd that a representative of such interests, visiting this city only casually on his way back from the north, should talk to the executive secretary of the Chamber of Commerce and say nothing about it, should talk to City Commissioner John Hodgson and say nothing about it—and then unload almost a detailed proposal to a reporter of the Journal newspaper.

It would be a queer and furtive way of doing business. And the circumstances do not increase public confidence in anybody who has had anything to do with it.

It would seem, for instance, a mean and petty performance to use the Chamber of Commerce as a lay figure in such a farce.

We should like to make it clear that, in our opinion, such a proposal is remotely possible. Moreover, competitive bidding for a concession of this kind, had it occurred at a less delicate moment, would have been perfectly wholesome from the city's standpoint.

But it seems strange that this competitive proposal should have been poured exclusively into the eager ear of the Journal newspaper at a moment when the Journal newspaper is aware that the Detwiler deal is vulnerable to opposition of a delaying and confusing nature.

It may be true, although Chamber of Commerce and civic officials declare that no proposal of any kind was even hinted to them.

On the other hand, it may be a red herring and a very smelly red herring at that.

It would be the height of folly to go chasing off after shadows and lose the substance we can so easily have.

Danger of War Now Receding

While Soviet Russia has gone through the formal and for them, surprisingly unimpassioned motions of protesting against the interference of the United Nations in the Korean struggle, she has made no positive move to enter it.

This restraint causes the danger of general war to recede. And every day Russia thus restrains herself, that danger will recede still further.

It could be true, of course, as has been suggested, that the Korean disturbance is merely a device to mask some sinister intent in the European theatre.

Russia, it is said, may be making her protests and priming her stooges, like Paul Robeson, to echo those protests over the Korean situation with the idea of fixing attention on a point where she does not intend to strike.

This is always a possibility. And it is a disturbing possiblity because minds that operate on a purely materialistic basis and have become inflamed with an almost insane greed for power are something of an enigma to more normal people.

Russia, then, may suddenly occupy all Berlin or all Germany or invade Yugoslavia or do one or more of a dozen inflammable things.

About such possibilities it is unprofitable to speculate. And the Allies can do nothing but make themselves ready for anything.

But in the issues of the Korean war alone, if it is possible to consider them alone, there seems little immediate likelihood of Russian armed interference.

No one knows all the facts about Russia. But in a general way it is reasonable to assume that it would be folly for Russia to delay hostile action while every day that passes puts the democracies on a better war footing.

Police Brutality, Police Efficiency

Evidence adduced by the city commissioners in an investigation of charges brought by Hong Suey Chin reveals that no brutal action could be proved against any Edmonton police officer.

This is about what the public expected to hear because up to the present Edmonton people have had no reason to lose confidence in the personnel of the police department or in its leadership.

And brutality is something that can be prevented and corrected quite easily by internal discipline.

But while it was necessary that these charges of brutality should be investigated, most Edmonton citizens were of the opinion and are still of the opinion that the civic administration got unduly excited about a minor matter and, until recently, has maintained a dangerous indifference towards major matters of police efficiency.

It is a bad thing, of course, when police officers get into the habit of knocking prisoners around.

But it is an infinitely worse thing when a police department is permitted to fall numerically to such low ebb that it would be helpless in the face of a crime wave.

It has been shown that the knocking around doesn't happen.

But there can be no possible doubt that Edmonton's force is totally inadequate to the crime threat that constantly menaces this city.

As The Bulletin has pointed out, Edmonton, advertised all over the continent as a "boom town," is merely inordinately lucky that the professional criminals haven't moved in long before this.

The only factor that gives this city temporary and relative immunity to big time crime is the fact that it is not on one of the known "crime circuits."

But when we can't find constables to give protection to the public from dance hall frequenters, certainly the force must be at a dangerous low.

The sooner Mayor Parsons' projected investigation of police strength is got under way, the better it will be for this city.

Speaking of Record Players I'm Using My Old One Again

There's music again at my house from an old-fashioned phonograph with — I'm almost ashamed to admit it—only one needle in the groove.

OTHMAN

This machine, with a record changer on one side and a radio on the other, I bought long before the war. It served me well with music to fit my mood (and make the pup howl) until about two weeks ago when it gave a final squeak and died.

I figured maybe the time had come to buy a new one. I went shopping for phonographs and I still get nightmares, involving gear wheels, from the experience. There are phonographs, which really are two in one, with one machine for playing big records at one clip and another for spinning small ones at another speed.

There are others that play records at three different speeds on the same spindle with different needles and adjustments, like an automobile gear shift. There are still others that play all kinds of records with the same needle, automatically, non-automatically, in sequence, and out of sequence.

Twenty-three Hour Job

And there is one super job, about the size of a tinsmith's tool kit, which holds a whole closet full of records and plays same for 23 solid hours without stopping. The man said if I didn't believe it, I could sit down and he'd prove it. I had to tell him that I couldn't spare 23 hours that particular afternoon.

His machine, I must admit, was a beauty. It took all kinds of records, mixed any old way, and played 'em on both sides, before shoving them gently into a box. The trouble was that it was costly and complicated and I am not a machinist.

And maybe I've got a tin ear. I listened to these newfangled records on these newfangled machines and they sounded about the same as the ones I bought a good many years ago. So I decided to get my old box patched.

I have read about the better business bureaus' campaign about phony radio fixers, but I never thought I'd tangle with 'em. I don't believe the first two fellows who ripped open my machine were crooks exactly; they were ignorant. They looked at all those widgets in the chassis, unhooked some, replaced others, and soldered the rest, but I don't think they knew what they were doing.

Eighty Cents Fixed It

I had to pay 'em, but the results were what you'd call sporadic. Sometimes I'd have music and sometimes buzzing. So I called in a neighbor, who diagnosed my case as a burned-out condenser. This cost 80 cents. He installed it for a small fee and I've had no trouble since.

Now the music dealers are moaning about a sudden slump in record sales. Mysterious. They can't understand it.

They haven't interviewed me. I am a typical ex-customer. And I am no graduate engineer. When they invent a phonograph that plays one kind of records (and I don't care if they are square) at one speed with one needle in one box with one button to push, then I'll be in the market again.

Until then I'll listen to the "St. Louis Blues," "Dardanella," and "Japanese Sandman" on records which sound fine, in an old-fashioned way, on the machine I already own.

Smiles

An actor, not so well known as he thought he was, received an offer of a part in a new show. Being on tour at the time, he replied by telegram:

"Will accept double what you offer. Otherwise count me out."

Next day he received a telegram which read:

"One, two, three, four, five, six, seven, eight, nine, OUT."

To the village came troops on manoeuvres. Some of them had to act as "enemy."

One soldier so detailed was standing by a gate when from a cottage emerged a sympathetic old dame and offered him an apple.

"And what are you doing here?" she asked.

"Oh, I'm the enemy."

"The enemy? Then give me back that apple."

Reason For Sentence

Editor, Bulletin.—The only true reason for existence is the development and application of our creative energies for the happiness and good of all. The economics of false and rugged individualism has stalled us on the highway of progress.

Many sickly and handicapped people who yearn to express the artist and artisan in them, through economic distress are confined to disgraceful housing quarters where they suffer untold misery and frustration, which is intensified during such severe weather as we have been having the last two winters.

Poor housing conditions misdirect creative energies into sickness, disease and crime. Good homes for all would be of paramount importance in bringing these energies into usefully artistic and constructive expression, with consequent enrichment of individual and the common good.

HOMES FOR ALL.

Cruelty To Dogs

Editor, Bulletin.—This letter I thought would be a good one to publish:

"Some time ago a certain party was condemned for shooting at a dog, but at least that would be sudden death and no suffering. More criticism should be given the man (or woman) who went down to enjoy the ball game on Sunday afternoon and locked their dog in a hot stuffy car with no windows or doors open. This to my way of thinking is a real criminal offence and the only punishment for such an act would be to wait for the owner, put him in the car and let the dog out for a while, because ten minutes of that hot sun radiating inside a car would teach him that a dog has feelings too.

DOG LOVER.

Spanking Recommended

Editor, Bulletin—If it were possible to view within the walls of one huge morgue and hospital all those persons in Canada who during the first half of this year have been killed or injured by assault, robbery, drunken or dangerous driving and the narcotic trade, we would find a better way, during the rest of the year, of dealing with these crimes, than the petty fines or small, useless prison terms.

Some juvenile or adult delinquents can be saved by kindness, but if not, the Bible tells us what to do in Deuteronomy, 25th chapter, 1st to 3rd verses and also St. Lukes gospel, 12th chapter, 47th and 48th verses.

Vancouver and Toronto use the paddle and in both places crime has decreased. Britain has abolished it and her crime bill has gone higher.

Throughout their lives some men need disciplinary guidance. The quickest way for them to achieve self-control is to receive a stiff fine for their first offence and a straight warning that for any future violence, they will not only be fined but also get their behinds tanned.

Kindness To Animals

Editor, Bulletin—As July 2nd is the fourth Sunday after Trinity on which God's creatures are generally remembered in one way or another, an earnest appeal is being made to the Churches and Ministers kindly to stress the essential need of kindness to all creatures, and also emphasize the moral aspect of cruelty, an issue which is often sadly neglected, and cannot be evaded with impunity.

In the summer weather birds and animals suffer considerably from the heat, so on their behalf the people are asked to deposit dishes of fresh water daily in places convenient for the birds, dogs, etc. to drink from. It will be beneficial for the horses if persons would kindly put up signs with this notice: "Horses can get a drink here" on them so that the drivers would be able to give water to their hard-working helpmates. By so doing, people will be helping the SPCA in its indispensable work of mercy.

Answer To Yank

Editor, Bulletin—Occasionally I get your newspaper here in California and am writing in regard to a letter signed a "True Yank." He claims to have been insulted. Well, I can say this about my trips to Alberta: I have always been very kindly received and made welcome but some of my fellow countrymen are always boasting and stating untruths and making it unpleasant for others.

Prices are not higher in Canada, except for luxuries—cigarettes, liquor, refrigerators, cars and a few things like that.

Re dirty cafes, they are to be found in all cities, and Chicago is no exception. I know it well.

He says there is work here in the U.S.A. for all who want to work. Well, there are over three million unemployed!

He says "We do not want Canada." Well, I wonder if you would want us!

I hope to come to Canada to become a Canadian for I have spent much time with you and know a good country, good government and good people when I see them.

ANOTHER YANK.

How About Canada

Editor, Bulletin—The days of suntan lotion and mosquito bites are back again. An army of two-weeks-with-payers is about to invade Canada. If you girls find that the moths have conducted an invasion of their own on your swim suits, don't despair. Simply make the holes bigger, and voila! A French bathing suit.

Our sunny province will have its usual share of visitors. With such drawing cards as Banff and Jasper, we can't miss. Edmonton itself will no doubt be the scene of wide-eyed tourists, expecting to see our world famous oil flowing down the streets. It's too bad the only thing flowing down said streets is dust.

Many of you will be leaving for the land below the 49th parallel. If you're chafing under the laws and regulations, and long for the "good old days", consider this little item. Way back in 1684, when Canada was French, and the U.S. was British, travel permits were required for Canadians who wanted to visit Albany or New York. That doesn't sound too bad, but wait. If you neglected to get a permit, the penalty was death. It's little things like that, that spoil a holiday.

Speaking of French Canadians, and I was, indirectly, have you thought of Quebec as a possible holiday target? For those of you who like to kick over the traces, Montreal is the answer. This city has everything, and your good old Canadian currency is not frowned upon. Then for you folks who like to combine education with your vacation, Quebec City is ideal. Here is a city loaded with authentic charm.

Wherever you choose, be it the East, West, or right here in Alberta, enjoy yourself. It could be later than you think. Here's one last suggestion. Not advice, just a suggestion. How about seeing Canada first? We've got a great country. The Americans think so. They've been coming here for years. Why not see for yourself?

MARY ELIZABETH SPENCE.

Flag Question

Editor, Bulletin.—When our Dominion Government appointed a committee (about seven years ago) to decide on a design for a Canadian flag, the committee did agree on one and brought it in, but because it had a Union Jack on it they just forgot about it, and we did not hear anything of it for about six years. But now since the crown is removed from the Ontario motor vehicles licence plates, and the fleur-de-lis is on the Quebec licence plates this year, why are they bringing up the Canadian flag again? Why not adopt the one their committee agreed on several years ago?

THE QUESTION—What type of dog do you think would make the finest household pet?

LIL LINDBERG, 11518-118 street, stenographer: It occurs to me that as far as pets are concerned it wouldn't make very much difference as to the type of dog a person kept, providing it was not mean and it behaved itself in the home.

RICHARD KROHMAN, 10269-92 street, carpenter: Dogs not only make nice pets, most can be found useful. A German shepherd dog is probably one of the finest watchdogs available and at the same time a handsome pet.

JEAN KERR, 10328-130 street, student: Give me a collie any day. Here you have neat dog that can be taught almost anything with proper training, and at the same time one that will always respect its master.

ROY PHILIP, 11229-96 street, serviceman: I have always looked upon dogs as useful animals instead of pets and would therefore choose a cocker spaniel. They are fine water dogs that have proven themselves useful during hunting season.

ANNE HECKER, North Battleford, clerk: If I was ever to get a pet it would probably be something very small that would not get the house in too much of a mess. Probably a Mexican chihuahua.

BOB GLUNS, Windsor, Ont., serviceman: Well, I certainly don't have to think very hard for that. At home we have a springer spaniel and in my opinion he is one of the finest creatures to have about the house.

Columnist Critical Of Edmonton Camp

Edmonton, Alta.

We drove today from Banff to Edmonton, our longest jump so far, out of the fingers of the Rockies into the palm of the prairie.

Both kids were sorry to leave behind the elk and deer that graze about the trailer camp in Banff. It took a bit of explaining to convince Judy that the game here is protected within the borders of the park. I could see that the idea of a sanctuary intrigued her.

She thought it over for awhile and then said, "Why don't they have a place like this for human beings?"

Foothills Beautiful

This foothills country is truly beautiful. Some of its charm, I suppose, is that you are driving out of the mountains and the effect they have of cutting you down to size.

Myself, I could never live away from the ocean, but it's not hard to see why the dwellers of the plains hate to leave home.

Had our first flat tire at Airdrie, about 20 miles north of Calgary and—man!—was it hot! The thermometer on the garage said 92 degrees.

Across the fields the warm wind sent the dust in tiny twisters and carried along the dandelion and cottonwood fluff like hot snow. Fellow at the garage who repaired our tire said, "It hasn't rained here, to speak of, in two years."

Edmonton's Accommodation

Edmontonians probably don't know it, but those of her visitors who arrive with their own homes behind them find just about the worst accommodation possible.

The trailer camp operated by the Alberta Motor Association on the city's south side is a disgrace. There are 30-odd trailers there, many of them permanently on blocks, and with sanitary facilities that can't have ever been looked over by a city inspector.

We were quick to accept the invitation of a friend to park in his driveway.

★ ★ ★

Sign on the outskirt of the city shows a huge hand pointing to Heaven and the words, "Look up! The cleanest sky in the world is above you. Natural gas keeps it that way!" At which some cynical Edmontonians mutter, "The cleanest sky and the dirtiest streets."

★ ★ ★

Why is it you hear the wind singing in the telephone wires on the prairie and never anywhere else?

★ ★ ★

The trek is still on to Alaska. In our brief stop at what my wife calls the Grapes of Wrath Auto Court we met a couple of families from Louisiana pausing here before tackling the big road to the north. One family of six lives in a battered trailer, the other—father, mother and nine children—somehow squeeze into a tent.

You don't know whether to think of them as fools or adventurers. Their standard of living seems deplorable to us, but they are the noisiest, happiest gang you ever saw—and the friendliest. We hope they strike it rich.

Boys, Girls Camps Good Investment

Whether it is the summer season or simply a case of wanting to help the government spend its money, the announcement that $8,105,690 was collected as bonus payments in one sale of Alberta government oil leases suggests that part of this money could be profitably invested in the future of the province by earmarking it for juvenile summer camps.

Each summer, many youngsters enjoy a week at one of the summer camps. They have a holiday. They learn many things. In well operated camps, they discover some of the rudiments of living harmoniously with others. In most cases, these camps provide important benefits and help, very materially, in establishing some of the groundwork for the developing of good, reliable citizens.

Unfortunately, for every boy or girl who gets to camp, there are dozens who cannot find an opening. In the cities there are too many children to be accommodated. In most of the rural areas there are no facilities at all.

Those camps which have been established require some responsible backing in order to secure sufficient funds, and even at that, many appeals for aid are necessary. At this very moment, donations are being asked to assist in the new Community League camp at the Sturgeon river, and the same situation can be found in many other areas.

One-Tenth Enough

If the youth of this province is as important as we know it is, surely some of our good fortune in possessing valuable oil pools should be devoted to the work of providing for the welfare of those youngsters. Ten percent of this one sale, that is, 10 percent of the extra bonus that has been paid, would be $810,000. That would provide summer attention for a great many youngsters.

In proposing such an idea, it would be a mistake for the government to enter into the summer camp business.

But there is no reason why the government could not set aside a share of its oil money to be used to assist these projects which have proven themselves.

For example, such a fund could be used to loan capital to responsible groups who could establish their ability to organize a camp. In these cases, one of the serious difficulties is to secure the money needed to provide adequate buildings and equipment. Even if that money had to be repaid, it would be of great assistance, if there was a fund from which such a project could be financed.

Another method would be to provide dollar-for-dollar grants for the establishment of bona fide community camps. That would assist many rural areas where people are willing and where cash can be raised, but where there is difficulty in securing enough to provide a proper camp.

Another Method

Still another method might be to provide small grants based upon the number who were accommodated at approved camps.

It would also be possible to establish a board to pass upon all applications for assistance and leave it to such a board to determine the merits of each case. Still another possibility would be to establish such a fund on an investment basis, where only the annual revenue would be used to assist camps.

The method could be worked out. It should be one which would leave the initiative to local groups, yet help those who were doing good work but needed help.

But whatever method was applied, the benefit of our boys and girls could be the best use to which the oil money could be used.

Trivia

Railway freight rates in Canada are slightly more than 40 percent higher than before the war, while costs of running the railways has risen more than 100 per cent in that time.

Canadians bought $202,000,000 worth of bread and bakery products in 1949.

In the year ending March 31, 1949, the interest paid by the federal government on the public debt cost Canadians $464,000,000.

About half a billion dollars will be invested in Canadian manufacturing industries this year.

Wildcat Initiates Drilling In Sask.

By C. V. Myers
Bulletin Oil Editor

The Saskatchewan Federated Co-operatives Ltd. has initiated a drilling program in Saskatchewan with a wildcat in the southwest corner of the province on it 458,000-acre Crown permit in the Cypress Hills.

The well is Co-op-Cypress Hills No. 1, in legal subdivision 14 of section 2-3-25w3rd, 12 miles from the U.S. border and about 31 miles from the Alberta boundary. It will test down to the Madison and will be completed around 5,500 feet.

The currently drilling Cathie Grage No. 1 wildcat is about 35 miles north-northwest of the new Co-op. venture

REFINERY EXPANSION

At Regina, the $1,500,000 addition to the Co-op. refinery there is now under construction and part of it will be ready around the end of this year.

The plant is now putting out about 2,000 barrels of refined products per day, which will increase to 4,000 barrels daily at the end of the year and 5,500 barrels a day when the new addition is completed next year.

★ ★ ★

The number of oil wells in the Excelsior field rose to 15 Tuesday as the Dome-Western Excelsior No. 4-8 well on the southwest corner produced 11.6 barrels of oil when allowed to flow for 37 minutes.

The well received a 1,000-gallon acid shot and is now shut in for lack of storage space.

The quarter on which the new oil well was drilled was purchased by Dome Exploration last May for a cash bonus of $179,000.

Western Leaseholds was in charge of the drilling, having received a sub-lease on the land from Dome.

OIL IN VIKING

In addition to finding oil in the D2, the new Dome producer discovered oil in the Viking sand, the only well outside of the Joseph Lake to do so. The well got 650 feet of clean oil and 150,000 cubic feet of gas in a test of this horizon.

The D2 was topped at 3,888 feet, 42 feet above the water line. Best test in this zone recovered 330 feet of oil in an hour. The well was taken down to the D3 zone, total depth 4,025 feet, but was unsuccessful in finding production.

Also at Excelsior, Imperial Oil has staked location for its 13th well. It is Excelsior No. 13 in lsd 16 of 10-56-24 w4th, a south offset to the Metro No. 1 oil well, which established a mile north extension to the field.

★ ★ ★

The Federated group, which Thursday paid a record $1,853,333 for a quarter-section of Crown reserve at Redwater, has staked locations for all four wells on the tract and expects to have them on steady yield within three weeks.

The new wells are Federated-General Petroleum No. 1-35, in lsd one of section 35-56-21 w4th; Federated-General Petroleum No. 2-35, in lsd two; No. 7-35, in lsd 7 of 35; and No. 8-35, in lsd 8.

★ ★ ★

A revised participation interest of the G. M. Bell group in parcels 93 and 96 at Redwater, purchased Thursday by Pacific Petroleums, was announced Tuesday. The group now has a one-third interest, while before it carried only 4-15ths interest.

Calvan, Garrison Oil and Garnet Oils each has a 1-12th interest in the two quarters, while Zodiac and Polaris each has a 1-24th share.

★ ★ ★

Edmonton North Oil No. 1 was reported drilling at 1,288 feet at 9 a.m. today. Well is located approximately two miles north of the city.

DORCHESTER, England—(CP)—A fire which broke out on the London-to-Dorchester mail train destroyed 100 sacks of parcels, but all the letters escaped.

Western Oil Prices Slip

U.K. Gold And Dollar Yield Sets New Record

LONDON.—(CP)—Sir Stafford Cripps announced today gold and dollars rolled into Britain's treasury at a record post-war rate in the last three months—reaching a post-devaluation high of $2,422,000,000.

The chancellor of the exchequer told the House of Commons the reserves rose by $438,000,000 in the quarter ending June 30, bringing the grand total to $1,062,000,000 more than the lowest point at which they stood immediately before sterling was devalued last Sept. 18.

★ ★ ★

OTTAWA.—(CP)—Department store sales in Canada—excluding Newfoundland—during May amounted to $73,627,000, an increase of 2.1 per cent over the total of $72,083,000 in the corresponding month last year.

Bureau of Statistics said today all regions except Manitoba and Saskatchewan showed increased sales in May, compared with the corresponding period in 1949.

★ ★ ★

AKRON, O.—(UP)—William O'Neil, president of the General Tire and Rubber Co., said today "there is no tire shortage" and "no threat of one."

O'Neil said that despite "false rumors" in connection with the Korean war "all rubber manufacturers have plenty of tires to sell."

In newspaper advertisements published coast-to-coast, O'Neil said "there is no reason for anyone to be stamped into buying tires through fear of rationing."

★ ★ ★

OTTAWA—(BUP)—Cheese production in Canada dropped 30 per cent in the early part of the 1950 season, the agriculture department said today.

But department officials said there still was a good chance of this country being able to meet its overseas commitments by sending all the 77,000,000 pounds of cheese it had promised Britain by the year's end.

★ ★ ★

LONDON—(Reuters)—Any desire to broaden business at the start of a new trading period today was checked by the situation in Korea. Caution and hesitancy were again uppermost in the London Stock Exchange.

The opening trend showed gilt-edged issues fractionally off and declines of a few pence widespread in the industrial groups. Sentiment improved later, however.

★ ★ ★

OTTAWA—(BUP)—A finance department spokesman said today Canada's gold and United States dollar reserve had shown a "comfortable" improvement, but there was no indication that the government planned further relaxation of import controls.

Finance Minister Douglas Abbott announced that Canada's reserves climbed to $1,255,000,000 on June 30—$73,000,000 higher than the preceding month and $278,000,000 above the figure for June 30, 1949.

But a spokesman said there was no immediate intention to lift remaining controls. They were imposed in November, 1947, to conserve Canada's dwindling supply of U.S. dollars. At the same time, the government launched a drive to sell more goods to the United States.

OTTAWA.—(BUP)—Canadians' apparently bigger appetites had forced meat prices up and were likely to do the same to eggs, an agriculture department spokesman said today.

The fact was that Canadians seemed to be eating more, certainly of meat and eggs anyway. So much so that 20 per cent more hogs were marketed so far this year than during the same period in 1949, the official said.

Combat Aircraft Production Low

U.S. Output Does Not Even Come Up To Peacetime Target

By Charles Corddry

Exclusive to The Bulletin

LOS ANGELES, July 5.—(UP)—The Far East crisis caught the United States with its combat aircraft production rate far below what any official or private study has proposed, even for peacetime.

According to best estimates available here, planes are coming off assembly lines at a rate of about 200 to 215 a month.

The comparable figure for May, 1941, six months before Pearl Harbor, was 1,350.

Some authorities believe that if there should be a worldwide war it would take a year to a year and a half to reach a point where airplane production could offset combat losses and the nation could show a net gain over today's air strength.

That assumes that expansion could go ahead without damage to aircraft plants by enemy activity or interruption owing to materials or labor shortages.

GAUGE BY WEIGHT

A better measure of how the industry is doing than numbers of airplanes is total production weight. In 1949, military airframe weight produced was under 29,800,000 pounds.

In one of the bluntest production proposals on record, the Congressional aviation policy board said "strength necessary to prevent the loss of a war" requires annual aircraft production of 63,000,000 pounds. It said if a successful air offensive were to be mounted immediately on the outbreak of a war, there should be annual production of 111,000,000 pounds. And it was banking on trouble not sooner than 1952.

The several studies that have been made of the industry's expansion potential vary, depending upon the goals sought. But the lowest estimate ever made of peacetime needs was that of the federal Aircraft Co-ordinating Committee—30,000,000 pounds annually. And the ACC was speaking of a time when world peace would be attained.

Calder Holds Playground Sports Day

Just one big happy family.

They were the parents and children, residents of Calder over 150 strong, who entertained themselves at the Calder playground sports day recently.

The strikers are seeking a pension plan and a wage increase.

IN COAST HOSPITAL

Man With Ice Pick In Chest Reported Critical

VANCOUVER, July 5—(AP)—Robert Cameron, 41-year-old marine engines salesman taken to hospital last night with an ice pick in his chest, still was in critical condition today.

Cameron was found lying in a west-end apartment. Found with him was Mrs. Carmen Ryan, 33, her face covered with blood.

A three-foot length of rubber hose, filled with lead, was found on the living room floor of Mrs. Ryan's apartment.

Cameron has severe chest and throat wounds. Mrs. Ryan, whose condition was described as "fairly good," is being treated for chest lacerations.

Mrs. M. Carey, who occupies the apartment under Mrs. Ryan's, said she was reading the paper when she heard screams coming from the apartment above.

"I knocked on the door and she opened it. Her face was covered with blood. I asked her what was wrong.

"She screamed: 'Help me; stop him; he's hurting himself.'

"I looked in the front room and saw a man kneeling in the middle of the floor with what looked like a knife in his chest.

"He then rolled over on his back. I rushed out to call police and an ambulance as Mrs. Ryan fainted."

Mrs. Alma Diebolt, sister of Mrs. Cameron, said Mr. and Mrs. Cameron had been estranged for more than a year.

Puritys Nip Buffs 5-4

CALGARY, July 5 — Outfielder Glen Gorbous singled in the ninth inning to score Richie Carlisle with the run that gave Calgary Puritys a 5-4 win over Calgary Buffaloes in an exciting Big Four Baseball league tilt here last night.

Carlisle had doubled off relief pitcher 'Dude' Baldwin to get into scoring position. The infielder from Oakland had quite a night at the plate. He slammed out a home run his first time up.

Ron Curby pitched Puritys to their triumph.

Juvenile School Opens

Some 72 young athletes turned up at Clarke Stadium yesterday morning for the first day of the Recreation Commission's annual juvenile baseball school.

And interest was so keen that plans are being formulated to run the school twice weekly throughout the summer holidays.

Several Big Four Baseball league players from Edmonton formed the instructional staff. Dodgers' popular centre-fielder is in charge of the undertaking, and received assitance yesterday from second baseman Ray Enjaian, pitcher Bob Peterson, third sacker Freddie Granato, first baseman George Bradish, all of the Eskimos, and Dodgers' pitcher Tom Kemp and shortstop Jim Hall.

Eskimo general manager John Ducey gave the kids a pep talk and Recreation Commission athletic supervisor Jack Reilly distributed circulars on baseball techniques.

Next session is slated for tomorrow morning, 9:30 to noon.

Danylowich Hits Hard

When Pete Danylowich was installed in the nmber three slot in Fire Department's line-up, he was put there because he could hit well.

And at Kingsway last night Danylowich lived up to expectations as Firemen drubbed hapless Navy 11-2 in a Senior 'B' Fastball league tilt.

All the big Fireman shortstop did was collect five hits in as many trips to the plate. Four of his hits were ringing doubles. He also drove in a trio of markers.

His performance overshadowed even the four hit mound chore turned in by Alex MacGregor. MacGregor pitched no-hit no-run ball for four innings before Wilber Delaney collected the first hit, a homer over the left field wall.

SEMI-FINALISTS in the country districts golf championship at the Country Club yesterday were, from left, Bob Macdonald, Medicine Hat; Gordon Rutten, Lethbridge; Ed Shuman, Camrose and Louis Oates, Drumheller. But by nightfall only Macdonald and Rutten remained in the hunt for the Calgary Herald cup, and they were off this morning on the first leg of 36 holes to decide who would win it.

Lady Rasslers Overshadow Main Eventer Al Mills

By Bart Gibb

You ain't seen nothing yet. Not until you've seen the lady rasslers, that is.

And the 3,000 fans who were jam-packed in the Stock Pavilion last night, shouted their approval as two flexible females tossed each other around the ring like a pellet in a pin-ball machine.

Ellen Olsen, a 140-pound Philadelphian, captured the last two falls in the best-of-three feature event, to win over a beautiful blonde from Birmingham, Alabama named Nell Stewart.

MILLS WINS, AS USUAL

In the main event, Al 'Mr. Murder' Mills downed Laverne Baxter for the second time in two straight falls.

Other matches between Joe Corbett and Chief Thunderbird, and Stu Hart and Francois Miquet, both ended in a draw.

Hardly had the starting gong sounded than the two lady grapplers, garbed in bathing suits, were at it tooth and nail.

Not only did they slug each other now and then but they also made things very tough for referee Butch Higgins. In fact, they relieved him of his shirt before the match was over.

Miss Stewart, who is as rough as some of Edmonton's streets, bagged the first fall at 10:35 with an aeroplane spin and a body press.

But Miss Olsen, better known as the 'Sizzling Swede', fought her way back to cop the next two and take the match. She scored the second fall at 14.20 with a body press and the third at 5:35 with three whips and a body press.

WITH ROPES acting as a springboard, Nell Stewart sails through air ready to pounce on her opponent, Ellen Olsen, in last night's feature event on the weekly rassling card. But she missed and thumped onto mat. Miss Olsen won the match two falls to one.

McManus-Tweed Win Trophy

Irma McManus and Joan Tweed won the Northern Hardware Ladies' doubles challenge trophy last night by downing Isobel McConnell and Helen Lilly in straight sets of 6-2, 6-4 at Garneau Tennis Club.

Mrs. McManus and Mrs. McConnell had formerly held the trophy for three years but were forced to split up. They both reached the semi-finals of the recent city tournament, and the trophy rules bar netters reaching the semis from teaming up.

In a second challenge match played last night at Highlands, Johnny Stott and Lois Tweed retained their Irving and Johnson mixed doubles trophy with a 6-4, 4-6, 6-4 win over Bob Cameron and Cal Holmgren.

Next challengers for this award are Jack Thorburn and Madge Forrester.

Grocholski Hurls Four-Hitter

Curly-haired Bill Grocholski weaved a neat four-hit mound effort yesterday to pace Clegg and Case Cardinals to a 10-1 victory over Elmwood Park Dodgers at Clarke Stadium.

Grocholski struck out 13 in the seven inning contest.

George Townsend started the ball rolling for the Lou Holmes-coached Cards by tripling in a pair of runs in the third fram.

Armstrong Leads Cloverdale Win

Bob Armstrong slammed home three goals last night to spearhead Cloverdale to a 7-1 win over Canadians in a junior soccer tilt at Clarke Stadium.

Other scorers for Cloverdale were George Starling and Jim Fox each with a pair, while Roy Phillion accounted for Canadians only marker.

Cloverdale: Bastien; Hoskins, Larson; Easterby, Bowen, Hunt; Baldwin, Armstrong, Starling, Edgar, Fox; sub: Johnson.

Canadians: Randolph; Mawhinney, Hepburn; Keyhoe, Sennegret, Anderson; Philion, McAvoy, Davis, Yakuba.

Mid-Season Calls For Major League Change

By OSCAR FRALEY

NEW YORK, July 5—(UP)—Major league baseball was past the traditional halfway mark today and it appeared high time to make some necessary revisions in the pre-season estimates.

Before the national pastime started passing time last April, there were a number of extravagant claims—the most absurd of which was the claim by all 16 managers that "We'll be right up in there this season."

That has been well settled.

We shall now go on to some others, concerning such favorites as the Boston Red Sox and the Brooklyn Dodgers, the matter of .400 hitters and 30-game winners, hotshots who have been well-cooled and the disputed Dodger claim that it has the wackiest ball park under the Big Tent.

MATH AND MIRACLES

Now, as in two seasons past, the Red Sox who were favored to win the American league flag are going to the whip what with plenty of ground between their churning red hose and the leaders. They say that the team which is ahead now is the team which will win the pennant. That held up last year when the Yankees and the Dodgers—the July 4 leaders—copped their flags.

If it holds again, it will be Detroit and the St. Louis Cardinals. Last year at this time the Yankees were on top by 4½ games and Brooklyn led the National league by two. Today, Detroit leads by four games and the Cards by 1½. But there's a ray of hope for the Red Sox rooters.

Last July 4 the Bosox were fifth by 12 games and they blew the flag on the last day. Today they are fourth by 6½ games—so maybe they'll win this year by 4½ games—if you believe in mathematics and miracles.

There's no denying that this is the year Connie Mack's dreams were shattered for good. He had a fine pitching staff, it was believed, and might win that "one more pennant." But his A's are in seventh place, 21 games back, and the bedraggled leader of that highly-touted mound staff is rookie Bob Hooper with an average 8 and 5 mark.

NO .400 HITTERS

As for .400 hitters, there aren't any—and may never be again what with so much night baseball. Jackie Robinson leads the parade with .380 and that's plenty good, but 20 points shy of the dream mark. And remember, before the season, how they were insisting that Don Newcombe would be the first 30-game winner since Dizzy Dean? Well, he has a 7 and 4 mark at the halfway point. The leading winner is Johnny Sain, and 11 victories halfway through still is some short of a 30-game pace.

By this time, too, it has been proved that two stars of the past still have enough to get by on, but that the old gray mare ain't what it used to be. Briefly, they are Bob Feller, with an 8 and 6 mark, and Hal Newhouser, with 7 and 5. And even with Prince Hal a venerable ex-king, those Tigers still are rolling along handily.

The Giants split with the Dodgers but there was plenty else going on. A man in the stands was killed by a rifle bullet, there were several heated arguments and a fan hopped out of the stands and slid successively, and with great fanfare, into second, then third—and then home.

Whadda they mean, everything happens at Ebbets Field?

Legion Report

All members of the North Side Legion junior soccer squad are asked to report to Clarke Stadium at 6:30 tomorrow night for their league game with Ukraina.

Two Country Parbusters On Prowl for Herald Cup

By Dick Beddoes

When the fussing and the firing died on the moisture-shy fairways at the Country Club yesterday, two men remained in the hunt for the hardware in the country districts championship.

And the pair—Bob Macdonald from Medicine Hat and Gordon Rutten of Lethbridge—were away this morning on the first leg of a 36-hole jaunt to decide the title. The winner will receive the Calgary Herald trophy as his prize.

Macdonald, a lanky 18-year old who hits 'em hard, was hotter than a summer day in his native Medicine Hat yesterday. In the morning he sidelined the highly-regarded Doug Silverberg from Red Deer two up.

TAKEN TO 21ST

And in the afternoon the Medicine Hat monarch of the mashie took out Ed Shuman of Camrose on the 21st hole.

Rutten received a bye in the morning when his opponent failed to show. In the semi-finals the Lethbridge shotmaker knocked off Louis Oates of Drumheller by a two and one margin.

Macdonald and Rutten are both after the Herald heirloom for the second time. In 1947 Rutten got by Shuman to win the award and a year later Macdonald, then only 16, registered a victory. Last year's champ was Bob Dunlop from Pincher Creek.

MCGUFFIN TENACIOUS

Play in yesterday's first round saw Shuman roll over Red Cantrill of Vegreville four and three, and Oates taken to the 22nd hole before eliminating Gordon McGuffin, a persistent par-buster from Turner Valley.

Perhaps Macdonald's triumph over Silverberg was the highlight of the day. And he was bearing down against the Alberta junior king every stroke of the way. He threw a deuce at his opponent on the par-three 18th to prevent the Red Deer hopeful from squaring the match.

The first 18 holes to decide positions on Alberta's Willingdon cup team will be played this afternoon. Following are the draws for the qualifying round in the provincial amateur and junior championship, both of which are scheduled for tomorrow.

TOPS SNEAD

Mangrum Wins Detroit Open

DETROIT, July 5.—(AP)—Dapper Lloyd Mangrum, who had to to settle for a co-championship in the 1949 Motor City open, came from behind yesterday on the last nine holes to edge Sammy Snead and win the 1950 tournament with a 274.

The chain-smoking Mangrum was three strokes down to Snead going into the final nine and most of the gallery of 10,000 figured that Snead, No. 1 money winner of pro golf this year, was going to pocket the $2,600 first prize money.

But Mangrum rallied with a courageous back nine, to finish with a 36-34—70. Then he had to sit by and watch Snead's vain efforts to edge him out.

Snead had a 33—three under par—going out, but two bogies on the final nine boosted him to a 38-71—275, one stroke behind Mangrum.

Snead gave the big gallery a real golfing thrill on the 18th on which he needed a birdie four for a tie. His second shot just missed a trap but he chipped up beautifully to within four feet of the pin.

He flubbed that short putt, however, and had to settle for par and second money of $1,900.

BOSTON—Ted Williams hit 266 homers in eight years.

SHOTTON PICKS ALL-STAR PITCHERS

NEW YORK, July 5—(UP)—Manager Burt Shotton selected eight pitchers today—including Don Newcombe and Preacher Roe from his own staff — to face American league sluggers in the All-Star game at Comiskey Park, Chicago, July 11.

Shotton also chose Robin Roberts (10-3) and relief ace Jim Konstanty (5-3) from Philadelphia; Larry Jansen (9-4) New York; Ewell Blackwell (6-7) Cincinnati; Narren Spahn (9-9) Boston, and Bob Rush (9-7) Chicago.

Oilers Score 12-5 Verdict

Ken LaBranche pitched Texaco Oilers to a 12-5 win over Westminster Royals last night at Diamond park in a Senior 'B' Baseball league contest.

A trio of Oiler batters aided LaBranche in getting credit for the triumph.

John Johnson and Al Ritch each collected three hits in four official trips to the plate. Tommy Foran got the game's big blow, a triple, in the second with two Oiler mates aboard.

Card Chuckers Cage Cubs Twice

NEW YORK, July 5—(CP)—St. Louis Cardinals, with veterans Max Lanier and Harry Brecheen hurling masterful ball, defeated Chicago's Cubs twice yesterday, 4-3 and 4-1, to increase their National league lead to 1½ games over Philadelphia Phillies.

Lanier held the Cubs hitless in the opener until the seventh. Then Bob Borkowski singled. The 34-year-old southpaw gave only two other hits—one a homer by Phil Cavarretta—in winning his eighth game.

Stan Musial cracked two-run homers in each contest to help the lefthanders.

BRAVES-PHILS SPLIT

Sid Gordon's fourth "Grand Slam" homer of the season gave the Boston Braves a 12-9 victory over the Phillies and a split of their doubleheader at Philadelphia. Phils, powered by Andy Seminick's "Grand Slammer," captured the opener, 14-5.

Gordon now shares with seven other major leaguers the record of four grand slam home runs in one season.

Detroit Tigers, by splitting a twin bill with the White Sox at Chicago, lost a half game of their American league lead to New York Yankees.

Tigers beat the Chisox, 10-9, in a second game slugfest after Bill Wight won a 4-1 duel from Hal White in the opener.

YANKEES WIN 16-9

Yankees thumped Washington, 16-9, in the first game of their doubleheader, but had to be satisfied with a 3-3 tie in the nightcap when darkness halted the play in the ninth.

St. Louis Browns put another chill on Cleveland's pennant hopes, smacking three Indian hurlers for 14 hits and an 8-3 victory in the second half of their bill at Cleveland.

Indians won the first game, 8-7, on Thurman Tucker's pop single in the ninth which scored Jim Hegan with the winning run.

DODGERS END STREAK

Brooklyn Dodgers, defending champions and leaders at this stage last year, ended a six-game losing streak by defeating their arch-rivals, New York Giants, 5-3, in the second half of a Polo Grounds doubleheader which attracted the afternoon's largest crowd—46,316.

Don Mueller's two-run pinch single in the eighth gave giants a 5-4 decision over Brooklyn's Don Newcombe in the opener.

Cincinnati's Reds dropped Pittsburgh deeper into the cellar by twice defeating the Pirates, 5-4 and 6-4, at Cincinnati.

Edmonton to Cleveland

Herewith the 'play-by-play' of shortstop Bob Lillis' hurried trip—via air—to Cleveland and return:

Wednesday, June 28, 7:45 p.m., leave Edmonton. Brief stopovers at Saskatoon . . . Winnipeg . . . Toronto . . . London—thence to Cleveland. Arrive 10:00 a.m. Thursday. Met at airport by J. R. Perry, official of Cleveland Indians ball club.

★ ★ ★ ★

Quick trip to Municipal Stadium, home of Indians. Met other officials, had lunch, then headed for Auditorium hotel, mid-afternoon Thursday. To bed before long, slept clock around almost.

★ ★ ★ ★

Friday morning: up bright and early . . . breakfast . . . off to Stadium again. Finally meet up with Hank Greenberg, Indians' general manager.

Don uniform, spend next hour or so hitting baseballs served up by mechanical pitching machine. Greenberg also hits, shows he still knows how to put lumber on ball. It's 320 feet down both foul lines. Lillis parks several in left field stands. Ditto Greenberg.

Later take 'infield,' with Greenberg handling the relays at first base. Indians not due back from St. Louis until later in day so Lillis and Greenberg have Stadium pretty much to themselves.

★ ★ ★ ★

Indians arrive. Lillis invited to work out with American leaguers before night game against Detroit.

Changes into dry uniform, goes through infield drill with Al Rosen, Ray Boone, manager Lou Boudreau, second baseman Bob Avila, Joe Gordon, Luscious Luke Easter.

★ ★ ★ ★

Avila speaks broken English but is nevertheless very helpful. Shows Lillis how to touch sack with left foot on double play, instead of running across bag and catching it with right, as he has been in habit of doing.

Infield practice over, has chance to meet others of the Indians, watch them go through paces. Bob Feller still plenty fast. Gene Bearden's famed knuckler. Bob Lemon's great control. Catcher Jim Hegan's strong arm. A wonderful receiver, too.

Easter quiet. Ditto Larry Doby and Dale Mitchell, the hard-hitting outfielders. Lou Boudreau pitches in hitting practice. He's not playing much these times, with Boone going at a swift clip.

★ ★ ★ ★

The Stadium fills up gradually. Close to 40,000 on hand when game gets underway. Easter hits two homers, Rosen one, as Tigers tamed 11-3.

★ ★ ★ ★

Next night—Saturday—it's Indians 7, Tigers 4. Lillis takes it all in from seat in grandstand. Studies this infielder and that, gets a line on batting styles.

Teams split a twin bill Sunday. Tigers click in opener 8-5, despite homers by the 'Cleveland Twins,' Easter and Rosen. Indians grab second 5-3 when Feller counts 200th mound win of career. Easter bangs three-run homer in sixth to clinch verdict and send 78,000 fans into hysterics.

Greenberg makes date with Lillis—for next day.

Monday—talk things over. Greenberg makes offer. Lillis phones father in Los Angeles.

Decides against signing anything. Will stay in school. Also decides not to go to Brooklyn to work out at Ebbetts Field. In view of decision to stay in school a while longer felt no point in going to Brooklyn.

★ ★ ★ ★

Back at Stadium pitcher 'Sad Sam' Zoldak makes young shortstop present of pair of baseball shoes. Goodbyes all round, then back down town, with a last minute walk on the 'main drag'—Euclid Avenue.

★ ★ ★ ★

Early Wednesday morning — off to airport. Get glimpse of Lake Erie as plane leaves Cleveland behind.

Return trip much rougher than going down. Finally Edmonton, at 5:45 p.m. John Ducey comprises one-man welcoming party.

"Wanta play ball tonight or are you too tired?" Ducey asks. The answer is: "Sure do."

P.S.: Dodgers 2, Eskimos (Lillis and Co.) 1.

WITH FOOTBALL PLAYERS

Argonaut 'Farm' Supplies Eskimos

The Toronto Argonaut-Edmonton Eskimo football relationship has come to this: Argos have become a 'farm' club for the Edmontons.

This season the Esks have 'brought' up five fellows—Frank Morris, Don Durno, Doug Pyzer, Mike King and Bill Briggs—from their Toronto affiliate. And they are angling for another Argo named Bill Zock, who plays guard.

Last year the Eskimos haul out of the Argo camp was not nearly so great, although they did come up with Bill Stukus nad Frank Hickey. Coach Annis Stukus himself is a former Argonaut employe.

Manager Al Anderson visited the newspaper offices last evening complete with a portfolio of pictures of ex-Argos and a complexion which indicates that he has been soaking up vitamin D lately.

Anderson expects most of the easterners to arrive early next week in preparation for fall training which commences July 15. Included in the eastern movement to Edmonton will be Jim Quandamatteo, known as "Quart-of-Tomatoes" for obvious reasons, and a starting guard with Montreal Alouettes last year.

Bulla Shows Way In British Open

By Glenn Williams

TROON, Scotland, July 5—(AP)—Johnny Bulla, big, handsome pro from Pittsburgh, wielded a hot putter yesterday to lead all qualifiers in the British Open golf championship.

Johnny's two 70-70 rounds left him four strokes under par for the two qualifying courses. He won £15 ($46.50) as the prize for the low qualifying total.

Bulla had six one-put greens yesterday—and even sank an 18-footer that followed a quarter-circle turn before it popped in—as he did all his par-busting over the longre Loch Green course.

His other 70 Monday matched par for the Troon course, where the tournament proper begins today.

AUSSIE SECOND

Little Norman Von Nida, the Australian ace, finished second to Bulla with 341. Von Nida added a 71 to Monday's 70.

Bulla's steadiness eclipsed more spectacular shotmakers like defending champion Bobby Locke of South Africa and Flory Van Donck, the Belgian pro who fired a sensational 65 at Troon Monday. But they both qualified easily.

Locke and Van Donck, the first-round sensations, were bracketed with W. D. Smithers, a British pro, at 142.

Van Donck, whose opening 65 at Troon was a course record, couldn't find the greens at Loch Green yesterday with a 77. Locke, after firing a record 68 over the Loch Green layout, blew four over par with a 74 on the championship course at Troon as his famous putter and his delicate wedge shots failed him at the same time.

Frank Stranahan of Toledo, O., holder of the British amateur title, set an amateur record of 69 for the Loch Green course yesterday to lead all the amateurs in the tournament with 143.

Jimmy McHale of Philadelphia had 144 and Skinny Art Clark, a pro from Huntington, W.Va., had 147 after equalling Stranahan's 69.

TWO UPSETS

Reach Semis At Wimbledon

LONDON, July 5—(AP)—The men's all-England Lawn Tennis championship singles move into the semi-final stage today with the United States assured of one finalist for the fifth consecutive year.

Top-seeded Frank Sedgman of Australia yesterday fought back from what looked to he certain defeat to whip Art Larsen of San Leandro, Calif., in the most thrilling five set struggle the hallowed centre court has seen in many a year, 8-10, 5-7, 7-5, 6-3, 7-5.

Then Jaroslav Drobny of Egypt polished off Gardnar Mulloy of Miami, Fla., with ease, 6-3, 6-4, 6-4.

This fixed up today's upper bracket semi final—just as the tournament committee had expected—Sedgman vs. Drobny.

Next door the committee's form sheet took a beating.

Budge Patty, a native of California who isn't ranked in the United States because he spends most of his time in France, mopped up Billy Talbert of New York, America's second-ranking amateur, 3-6, 6-4, 6-2, 6-3.

And Vic Seixas of Philadelphia, who was due to drop out a couple of days ago, outlasted fourth-seeded Eric Sturgess of South America in five spine-tingling sets, 9-7, 6-8, 3-6, 6-2, 7-5.

Old Rockport Not So Old

INGLEWOOD, Calif., July 5—(AP)—Clifford Mooers' Old Rockport upset the favorites yesterday to win the $25,000 Argonaut handicap before a jammed holiday crowd estimated at 49,400.

Leaving the popular betting choice, Bolero, to finish out of the money, ace jockey Gordon Glisson brought the chestnut four-year-old from Kentucky from behind to win the feature by a length and a half.

Old Rockport, timed at 1:42 2/5 for the mile-and-one-sixteenth, paid $14.20, $6.50 and $4.70. Frankly, ridden by William Shoemaker, paid $5.20 and $4.10 and Manyunk $5.20.

Oil Capitol Pays Off

CHICAGO, July 5.—(AP)—Oil Capitol won the $28,675 Equipoise mile before 31,928 at Arlington Park yesterday with Shy Guy second, Prop third and Fervent fourth.

Victory was worth $19,700 to Tom Gray, Tulsa, Okla., owner of the winner.

Louis Has Punch On Golf Course

CLEVELAND, July 5.—(AP)—For the second straight year, Joe Louis yesterday won the amateur golf title of the City Golf Association.

The retired heavyweight boxing champion nosed out Leonard Reed of Los Angeles, one up, on a course in the suburb of Brecksville. Louis was behind three times in his final match, finally caught up on the 16th, won the 17th and tied the last.

DODGER SCHOOL OPENS TODAY

Don Lindberg and Charlie Smith, of the Brooklyn Dodger farm system, arrived in the city yesterday afternoon.

Fourth annual Dodger baseball school was scheduled to commence at Renfrew Park this morning. Open to all youths between the ages of 17-20, school will continue through tomorrow and Friday.

Registration was to get underway at 9:00 a.m.

Special invitation has been extended to coaches and managers of baseball teams to attend.

CLEARY AFTER SECOND WOODENFACE WIN

Fourteen year-old Rod Cleary is out to repeat his last year's winning effort in fanning the Bulletin's Woodenface.

Yesterday at McCauley Cleary fanned 'Ole Woodenface twice. The first time Cleary, last year's city winner, threw three straight strikes past Woodenface, as did John Serniak.

In the final Cleary threw four pitches before fanning Woodenface while Serniak walked the batter.

Tomorrow Woodenface will put in an appearance at Westwood at 10:30 a.m. and at Highlands at 2:30 p.m.

The East End final will be held at McCauley Friday at 2:30 p.m.

Cadomin Kid Curveballs Eskimos Into Submission

By Stan Moher
Bulletin Sports Editor

More and more it appears that righthander Eddie Kapp is going to be Dodgers' meal-ticket.

Last night, at Renfrew Park, the kid from the coal branch ironed out the Big Four league's pace-setting Eskimos 2-1. It was his seventh win against one setback.

Result left Dodgers breathing hard down Esks' backs with a half game to choose between the clubs, the race just over half run.

BEST OF SEASON

Last night's was the best played contest in the Stockade this season. What's more it went a long way to prove that the two-hour ball game is not as dead as the spitball, as so many had began to believe.

This one the athletes reeled off in an hour and 35 minutes.

Dodgers climbed on Jerry Seaman for both their runs in the opening inning and then hung tough over the rest of the route to catch the nod.

After leadoff hitter Mike McInerney had been rubbed out—third to first—Barry Robertshaw touched off the uprising by beating out a bunt down the third base line.

Then, in quick succession, Bernie Anderson walked, and Jim Ryan and Doug Stewart stroked line-drive singles to score two runs. A double play, with starry Bob Lillis on the front end, retired the side.

LILLIS STANDOUT

Lillis, only just off the plane, after an all day flight from Cleveland, played his usual standout game in the Eskimo infield. He took part in three double plays, while handling seven chances without even a suggestion of a boot.

As well he touched Kapp for a pair of hits in four trips, including a 355-foot double in the fourth inning.

Esks' lone run followed, the nimblefoot from Los Angeles moving to third on an infield out and making it the other 90 feet as Freddy (Shoot The Half) Granato lofted to Robertshaw in centre field.

Dave Brockie, Esk centre-fielder, also collected a pair of hits. When it came to doing his average the most good, however, Dodgers' Doug Stewart was the big hitter.

He went "three-for-three,' with a base-on-balls thrown in for good measure.

KAPP'S SHOW

Essentially it was Eddie Kapp's show.

The likeable curver from the mountains, whose luck hasn't been all good of late, is a vastly improved hurler compared with six weeks ago.

The Esks will tell you (it's a habit with beaten ball teams everywhere) that Kapp "ain't got a thing."

I dunno, though. There's that 7-1 record and an earned run average somewhere around 3.00 per game.

Darkness Postpones Tennis

South Side's junior men's district tennis champ won't be settled until tonight at Garneau.

Andy Henning and Dave Kinloch, fighting it out in the final, had to call it quits in the middle of the second set last night due to darkness. Henning won the first set 6-4 and the score was 7-7 in the second.

Winners in the North Side district tourney were Frank Oliver, junior men's champ and Eleonore Pepin, junior ladies' queen.

Highland Gals Golf Queens

Highland ladies golf club won the R.C. Marshall cup for inter-club competition held recently with a total point score of 161.

Mayfair followed with 129 while Municipal ladies were third with 98. Edmonton Country club trailed with a 92 count.

Coast Colt Creates Record

VANCOUVER, July 5.—(CP)—Pacific Pearl, with Ernie Stallings up, set a track record at Lansdowne Park yesterday in winning the seventh race.

Pacific Pearl covered the six furlongs in one minute, 10 4/5 seconds, one-fifth of a second better than the old mark. The previous record was held by Fort Gary and Noble King and was made on consecutive days in July, 1947.

Middleground Loses Ground

WASHINGTON, Del., July 5.—(AP)—King Ranch's Middleground lost some ground yesterday in his quest for three-year-old honors when he could do no better than third to Mrs. Walter M. Jefford's Post Card and Rocky Stables' County Delight in the $22,500-added Leonard Richards stakes, closing-day feature at Delaware Park.

Battery Mates Combine

Battery mates Johnny Kruk and Bruce Kerr combined last night to pace Boyle Street to an 11-3 triumph over MaMillan Sales at Clarke Stadium.

Kruk pitched two-hit ball to gain credit for the win while Kerr hit a grand-slam homer in the second inning.

City Housewives Take Salt With Rocketing Food Prices

The Edmonton housewife is taking the latest Ottawa news report with a pinch of salt.

From the Dominion capital statisticians report that the cost of living index has skyrocketed to 165.4 at the last count—which means Canadians are now spending $1.65 to buy the necessities they purchased for an average of one dollar during the 1935-1939 basic period.

Across Canada food prices climbed even higher than those of other commodities. Food now costs more than double the basic period price, the statisticians say.

EVEN BIGGER INCREASES

But the local woman, shopping across what was once the bargain counter, can quote them examples of increases bigger even than that.

In 1939—when prices were at their highest during the basic period—Mrs. Edmonton could buy a rump roast for 13 cents a pound. If she pays as little as 65 cents a pound now she considers herself lucky.

Bacon at 36 to 45 cents a half pound is a treat in many families today, but in 1939 it sold for 28 to 32 cents for a full pound. Cooked ham, now 56 cents a half pound, was 24 cents a pound in 1939.

SALMON JUMPS

Fresh salmon commands a 60-cent a pound price in 1950 against 23 cents a pound in 1939; sirloin steak has jumped from 27 cents a pound to 78 cents a pound during the war and post-war years, and veal chops are up from 19 cents to 59 cents a pound.

Fresh fruit and vegetables are more than double their 1939 level: oranges 50 to 60 cents a dozen instead of 18 cents; tomatoes 55 a pound instead of 13 cents a pound; large cucumbers 25 cents each instead of 10 cents, and cauliflower 35 cents instead of 15 cents each.

National brand coffee sold in 1939 for 36 cents a pound now it costs at least 94 cents a pound.

POTATOES, TOO

In July, 1939, the Edmonton housewife paid 13 cents for five pounds of new potatoes in July, 1950, three pounds cost her 25 cents.

She could buy all the tea she wanted at 36 cents a pound 11 years ago and sweeten it with sugar at 67 cents a ten-pound sack. Now the tea costs from 90 cents a pound upwards, and sugar is 11 cents a pound.

Just before the war her family would have all but scorned canned red salmon (two tins for 25 cents) and pineapple (two tins for 27 cents).

NEAR LUXURIES NOW

Both are near luxuries now, salmon at 45 cents a tin or more and pineapple selling for 33 to 39 cents a tin.

In fact, a pinch of salt is about the only thing the local housewife can afford to take with the Dominion bureau of statistics' latest report.

Salt is one of the few items on the pantry shelf that hasn't shown a fabulous price rise: it has increased only one-and-one-half cents a package since the good old days.

BEER SEEKING BEAR GETS COOL RECEPTION

WATERTON, July 5—(CP)—Everything was quiet in a local hotel tavern until an unexpected customer appeared. The murmur of voices died away, a waiter dropped a tray of glasses and everyone started piling through the nearest exit.

A big brown bear had wheeled through the open door—loping through the lobby straight to the beverage room.

Bruin stopped a few feet from the bar and perched on top of a table, waiting to be served. Becoming impatient at poor service he clawed a chunk of plaster from the ceiling.

After about 10 minutes of shouting and general upheaval, the intruder was "bounced" at the point of a broom.

Hotel business soon resumed—with the main door shut tight.

Federal Aid For Road Via Yellowhead Likely

Application from the provincial governments for federal aid in construction of the Yellowhead Pass route to the coast would "undoubtedly receive favorable consideration" at Ottawa.

"I would like to see that route constructed," said Senator James MacKinnon, minister without portfolio in the federal cabinet, on his arrival at the Macdonald hotel from Ottawa this morning.

While the provincial governments have selected a route for the trans-Canada highway, there is no doubt but what the Yellowhead will be constructed eventually, he said.

FEARS DELAY

Questioned on Dominion government plans for a new federal building here, he said he hoped the city's delay in reaching a decision on the site with the department of public works, "will not unnecessarily delay construction."

Senator MacKinnon will leave Friday for Jasper, where he will participate in opening ceremonies at the new recreational centre there, Saturday.

He also plans a short visit in Vancouver before returning to Edmonton.

739 Holiday U.S. Deaths

CHICAGO, July 5—(AP)—Accidental death struck down at least 739 persons during the four-day Independence Day week-end in the United States. The toll was much higher than expected and rocketed toward the all-time high set in 1936—761 deaths.

Americans died in traffic crashes, by drowning and by miscellaneous accidents at a little better than one every 10 minutes during the 102-hour period between 6 p.m. local time Friday and last night at midnight.

Highway smashups claimed 458 lives.

Water deaths totalled 168. Miscellaneous mishaps killed 113.

No one was reported killed in Fourth-of-July fireworks tragedies, but the other deaths were tied in with Independence Day celebrations.

Australia Plans Draft

CANBERRA, July 5—(Reuters)—Australia will introduce compulsory military training "as soon as possible." It was announced today.

The announcement was made after a meeting of the defence council, comprising service ministers and service chiefs.

The defence council also decided that youths aged 18 will be drafted for between 3½ and four months for all three services.

The proportion will be 75 per cent for the army, 15 per cent for the air force and 10 per cent for the navy.

The defence council's decisions have to be ratified by the federal cabinet.

Student Pilot Hits Instructor With A Rock

SYRACUSE, N.Y., July 5—(UP)—A flying instructor said today a 15-year-old student pilot attacked him with a rock while their two-place seaplane was flying over Onondaga Lake.

Robert Ruder, 32, told police that Bernie Schaknowski suddenly hit him on the head with a rock after he agreed to take him up for flying instruction.

Schaknowski's mother told police he had been under a doctor's care. He was sent to a juvenile detention home pending further investigation.

President Seeks Socialist Lead On New Cabinet

PARIS, July 5—(UP)—President Vincent Auriol called on Socialist leader Guy Mollet today to try to persuade France's middle-of-the-road parties to co-operate in a new coalition government.

Mollet's Socialists overthrew the two-day-old right-of-center government of Premier Henri Queuille last night, deepening France's political crisis since the war.

Informed sources believed that France soon would face general elections unless Popular Republicans, Radical Socialists and Socialists can agree on a joint policy.

Fireman Dies Beneath Truck

Special to The Bulletin

GRIMSHAW, Alta., July 5—Art Eccles, 22, Grimshaw volunteer fireman, was instantly killed about midnight last night when crushed beneath his fire truck.

Eccles was answering a fire alarm when he slipped from the truck, the vehicle passing over his body.

Manning RCMP detachment said Eccles is survived by his wife. No inquest is being held.

Honor Pastor At Mannville

MANNVILLE, July 5—An estimated 250 attended the social evening held in the school auditorium on Thursday evening in honor of Rev. K. C. and Mrs. McLeod.

They leave this charge shortly to take over one in the Berwyn-Grimshaw field. Those attending represented Mannville, Minburn, Vermilion and districts.

Mr. McLeod took over the charge of McQueen's United Church, Mannville, 13 years ago.

A purse was presented by C. Torrance, on behalf of the gathering, and a bouquet of flowers to Mrs. McLeod. Mrs. N. MacKinnon, on behalf of the Senior and Junior Ladies' Aid, presented Mrs. McLeod with a bedspread.

Speakers included D. Myers, Minburn, Ivan Smith, Scotstown, G. W. G. Murrison, Vermilion, Rev. V. P. Cole and A. E. Williams, Mannville.

Two Kinsmen Projects Open

STETTLER, July 5—Two Kinsmen projects were opened here recently.

The swimming pool opened Saturday. Enthusiastic youngsters lined the fence long in advance. Shortage of water had previously delayed and made doubtful the opening.

Saturday marked the opening dance for many seasons at the Rochon Sands Dance Hall now owned and operated by the Stettler Kinsmen.

Stettler Reserve Army gave a display of fireworks at the lake to celebrate Dominion Day.

Guides At Camp

BIG VALLEY, July 5—Girl Guides, under the leadership of their Captain Vera Semenuik, are attending a camp at Pine Lake this week.

Assisting Mrs. Semenuik are Mrs. Bert McAllister and Mrs. John Shymisik.

MERCHANT AND philanthropist who was decorated by seven nations, William Massey Birks, died in Montreal last night. He was 81. At his death he was chairman of board of directors of Henry Birks and Sons, Limited, the firm of jewelers and silversmiths for whose expansion he was largely responsible.

Pibroch Club Members Awarded Top Honors

WESTLOCK, July 5—Pibroch club took home both champion and reserve champion ribbons at the Westlock Calf Club show and sale held Monday.

This is the fourth show and sale sponsored by the Westlock club and clubs represented were Highbridge, Pibroch, Prosperous and Westlock.

Young uniformed calf club members paraded 48 animals before judges W. Mead, livestock commissioner, and I. A. Coles, provincial livestock supervisor.

Grand champion, a Hereford, was owned by Betty Gamble of the Pibroch club and the reserve, also a Hereford, went to J. Dailey, also of Pibroch.

Award for showmanship went to Evelyn Roberts of the Prosperous club.

Prizes were awarded by W. O. Mountain, President of the Westlock and district association calf clubs.

Good prices were realized at the sale conducted by Maury Jacobs and Don Ball of Edmonton.

Top price was 41 cents per pound paid by Weiller & Williams, Edmonton, for the grand champion. The reserve champion went to Burns & Co. at 35 cents per pound. The average price for the entire offering was slightly in excess of 30 cents per pound.

Buyers attending the sale were: Burns & Co., Canada Packers Ltd., Alberta Livestock Co-op., A. A. Brown Ltd., Gainers Ltd., Swift Canadian Co., Weiller and Williams, D. Kickham and W. J. Murfitt, Westlock. Burns & Co. were the heaviest purchasers, buying a total of 14 head.

A lucky entrance ticket with a calf as the prize was won by W. S. Armstrong, Westlock. This was later put up for auction and realized $120, the purchaser being W. J. Murfitt, Pibroch.

Tree Cutting Caution Urged

ATHABASCA, July 5.—Unless proper precaution is taken this district may find itself devoid of forage crop seed for marketing purposes.

G. Godel, district agriculturist, speaking at the annual forage crop show sponsored by the Athabasca and District Board of Trade, said this would be as a result of indiscriminate cutting and burning of trees.

Drouth, grasshopper infestation, soil drifting and lack of pollinating insects, could be expected, he said.

Other speakers at the meeting included W. Lobay, superintendent of pests control, provincial department of agriculture, and H. B. Stelfox, assistant superintendent at the Dominion Experimental Farm, Lacombe.

Presentations were made to the winners of the various competitions. New champions are: Mike Kawulok, sweet clover, Athabasca; Alex Hewko, alsike, Sarrail; Gilbert Huppie, alfalfa, Grandin, and Walter Schewdo, altaswede, Donatville.

Mexican Navy Increases Patrols

MEXICO CITY, July 5—(UP)—Some 30 Mexican navy warships stepped up patrols along both coasts today after being alerted against possible violation of Mexican territory.

Acting navy minister Alberto J. Pawlings said "all available warships" would take part in the patrol. He announced the alert after a conference with president Miguel Aleman, presumably on the Korean war.

SICILY'S ROBIN HOOD

Wanted for 117 Murders, Bandit King Killed by Police

PALERMO, Sicily, July 5—(UP)—Salvatore Giuliano, notorious self-styled Robin Hood who faced 117 murder charges, was killed in a gun battle with police early today.

Police guns cut down the handsome 27-year-old bandit chieftain near Castelvetrano, 40 miles southwest of here.

The Italian government formally declared war on Giuliano 11 months ago. It sent 1,500 handpicked carabinieri to Sicily with orders to capture Giuliano dead or alive, equipped them with tanks, Spitfire fighters, and other modern weapons and offered a 3,000,000-lire ($4,800) reward.

Then last night they got a tip he was hiding in a house in Castelvetrano. As police closed in, the outlaw fled into the hills with a few men.

The carabinieri hurriedly cordoned off the area and Giuliano decided to try to shoot his way out. There was a heavy exchange of gunfire, then silence.

When the police closed in, they found Giuliano dead and alone, abandoned by his confederates who apparently escaped in the darkness.

The end came as a disappointment to most Italians, who were on Giuliano's side in his fight against Communism, the government and the wealthy despite his career of murder, kidnaping, assault, robbery and other crimes.

Although he kept a lion's share of his plunder for himself, he distributed largess to the peasant poor. He would leave money on the doorsteps of widows, kill landlords who tried to evict tenants and reimburse victims of robberies.

War Stories Back With Korea Fight

War in Korea has revived some army training stories.

Seymour Evenson, trapper from Watson Lake visiting in Edmonton, told of one that went the rounds during the Canadian-U.S. Exercise Sweetbriar up in his neck of the woods.

During the exercise bridges were "bombed." When a structure was hit, it was considered demolished. Civilians were forbidden to cross "demolished" bridges.

So, says Evenson, he took no chances when approaching a bridge. He asked an American trooper if it was there . . . or was it not there.

"Don't know," replied the man. "I've been dead for three days."

★ ★ ★ ★

Almost as good is the story of the time the Canadian army, before the last war, hard-pressed for transport, hired some commercial trucks for manoeuvres. Eaton's, the Bay and all the rest of them, went to "war".

Man in a truck drove up to a referee standing by a bridge. Referee tells man he can't cross. Bridge blown up.

Man looks at bridge, says, "whether that bridge I see there is blown up or not, I've got to cross. I don't belong to your army. I work for the Canadian National Express."

Watch the Squirt, Please

Whether hot weather conditions had anything to do with it is problematical, but water squirters are back. But not in the form of guns or squirting flowers.

This time it's in form of a camera.

The interesting little toy is on sale at downtown department stores and is the ideal type of camera for "snapping" pictures on hot sunny days.

And Watch the Birdie

"Watch the birdie."

"What birdie?"

Bulletin Photographer Danny Scott has heard that question many, many times.

So, he got himself a fluffy toy bird which now stands atop his camera.

If this fails to satisfy, Scott threatens to obtain a vulture.

Puzzled For Pedestrians

A fellow could be excused for being a little puzzled at the corner of what is known as Jasper and 98 street.

Sign on the light standard says it is Jasper and 98 street.

What is chiselled on the curb, however, is Jasper avenue and Fraser avenue.

And on one side of the street there is what is known on the front of the building as the Jasper Building. But a sign on the side, up near the roof, says it is the Williamson Building.

The paper was barely on the street before people began phoning that they'd recognized Peg's picture. Later Peg herself said she'd write to Gordon again—"if he wrote first."

Record Set By Entries Of 'Planes

Flood of entries for Sunday's big model aircraft flying meet at Namao airport is expected to set a new record.

Contest officials expect model enthusiasts from as far as Calgary will be on hand for the third annual provincial model contest, sponsored jointly by the Edmonton Bulletin and Alberta branch of Model Aeronautics Association of Canada.

Grand championship award is a free trip to the U.S. National Model Aircraft Contest at Dallas, Texas, donated by the Bulletin.

OTHER PRIZES

In addition, cash or merchandise prizes worth more than $225 will be offered in the 11 events for all types and sizes of flying models. Each model must be built and flown by contestant. Entry blank is on page two of today's paper.

A special prize of $20 is being offered by Morgan Nicholson Insurance company for the most perfect landing in control line events.

Spectator interest will be keen, with rubber-powered and gas-powered models buzzing around in both speed and stunt events.

Last year's crowd of 3,000 is expected to be far surpassed.

Prizes in various events will be as follows:

Rubber powered cabin models, open: 1, $10, Edmonton Paint and Glass; 2, $5, Model Aeronautics Association.

Free flight gas models, class ½A, open: 1, $7.50, Hudson Bay Co.; 2, $4, Northern Hobby Supply, Jasper Place.

Free flight gas models, class A, open: 1, $8; 2, $4, both from Uncle John's Hobby Shop.

OTHER AWARDS

ARMY, AIR CADETS TRAINING

NORTHERN ALBERTA army cadets, 300 strong, left yesterday by train for summer camp at Vernon, B.C. Down to wish her sons goodbye with customary advice was J. Bieleck, 11211-51 street. Sons are Edward and Albert.

IN EDMONTON, Northern Alberta air cadets are up in the wild blue yonder. Through scholarship plan, the cadets are receiving 17 hours free flying lessons and ground school instruction. Looking at the "big ones" they hope some day to fly are Sgt. Jack Forgie and Cpl. Dan Miller, of Fairview, and Sgt. Don Kirk, Lamont. Edmonton Flying Club is handling the operation.

City Fair Farm Camp Draws 100

Scholarships Are Offered; Club Rally Second Feature

Edmonton's exhibition will mean a week of camping, hard work and study for about 100 young farm boys and girls.

Edmonton Exhibition Association with the assistance of the provincial and federal departments of agriculture, will again operate a farm boys' and girls' camp.

Young farmers, from many points in the province, will hold their classes and demonstrations in the junior farming building, near the grandstand.

SCHOLARSHIPS

Edmonton Rotary Club is donating two scholarships of $100 tenable at the Olds or Vermilion schools of agriculture.

The scholarships will be awarded the farm boy and girl having best record at the camp.

On July 20, the second annual junior farm club rally, open to boys and girls in the Edmonton district, who are active members of junior farm clubs, will be held. Some 200 are expected to attend.

Livestock judging, showmanship demonstrations and weed identification will be included in the day's activities.

Girls will have a program of clothing selection and home improvement demonstrations.

SPECIAL PRIZES

Special prizes will be awarded to the boy and girl with the highest aggregates.

Junior Farmers' dairy calf competition has been moved over from the spring show to the exhibition as it was felt that the fair would be a more suitable time for the showing of the calves.

This competition is open to boys and girls between the ages of 10 and 20.

Exhibitor of the best-judged calf will receive Kiwanis Club challenge trophy.

Other prizes will also be awarded.

MONEY PRIZES

Four money prizes will be donated to winners of the foal competitions.

Other classes will be by Alberta Provincial Swine Breeders' Association, Junior Crop Club, Junior Farm Club Thematic exhibit, and junior vegetables and flowers.

The young people will be guests of the Edmonton Exhibition Association at a banquet and the grandstand show on July 20.

Housing Continues

The federal government will continue its aided housing scheme in Canada with the same objective as last year's 91,000 homes.

If prices of lumber and materials hold steady there will be no letup in construction, said Hon. R. H. Winters, minister of resources and development on his arrival in the city by TCA from Ottawa, Tuesday afternoon.

The need for housing is still great with Toronto and Vancouver leading Canadian cities in the demand for new homes.

CANCELLED

Referring to the cancellation for construction of 250 houses near Vancouver the minister said the department considered the price too high.

"The price was $800 to $1,300 higher than the estimated cost," he said. "No contracts are signed if we consider prices too high.'

Alberta is one of the three provinces which are holdouts from the federal government's housing scheme, the remaining seven have all signed complementary legislation.

"The other two are Prince Edward Island, which has no real housing problem and Nova Scotia which has a plan operated by the provincial government."

GOES NORTH

The minister is to make a personal inspection of the parks in the southern part of the province, and administration in the North West Territories.

Mr. Winters is accompanied by George Prudham, MP for Edmonton West, parliamentary under secretary to the minister, and R. Elliott, secretary.

Navy Promotion

One Edmonton officer was included in the latest promotion list issued by the Navy. Promoted to chaplain, class three, is Chaplain George L. Green of HCMS Nonsuch.

Homemakers Weep; Budget-Battle Scarred

By Bea Thrifty

Government released a sad handful of words yesterday . . . the cost of living has jumped another notch.

Now . . . to we gals who wield cudgels in the battle of the budget . . . this is no news. This past month has been eggs, beef, tomatoes, margarine, and vast assortments of tinned goods climbing the price scale.

Pork, veal, liver, heart, kidney followed suit and the resulting high cost of living surpasses any previous torture to which we budgeters have been subjected.

★ ★ ★ ★

But with this sad 'n serious situation to erase our happy smiles . . . we needs must turn our minds to cheerier things.

The only gem of gaiety I can muster up has to do with apricots, apricot-plums and British Columbia strawberries.

Apricots, from sunny California, and sweet 'n juicy to boot, are selling at a low of $2.65 per case. These are at their peak now and supplies will fade rapidly beyond the week-end.

Fruit dealers' warning still holds forth at "PRESERVE APRICOTS NOW."

★ ★ ★ ★

A bit of crafty grafting has pulled through an apricot-plum that's a winner for juicy sweetness.

It is of a blued-amber shade and looks exactly like a cross between a plum and an apricot . . . strangely enough.

They sell at 30c per pound and aren't too plentiful. Incidentally they preserve beautifully.

★ ★ ★ ★

Now for a sweet song of succulent strawberries and the story of preserving prices unfolds . . . so does your wallet Madam Homemaker!

Seems a single crate of berries sells at a low of $6.15 and a high of $7.95.

★ ★ ★ ★

That's lots 'n lots of dollars for a crate of strawberries! Question of berries . . . to be or not to be on your winter fruit shelf . . . depends on state of your wealth.

I'm having a luxury fling at half a crate myself.

★ ★ ★ ★

Now for raspberries!

British Columbia raspberries are said to be ripe and ready for shipment almost immediately.

They'll start at the usual high-falutin' price of 45c per tiny basket and work their juicy way down to 25c per basket 'fore long.

WHY GROW OLD

Violent Exercise Will Do More Harm Than Good

I have many inquiries asking what type of exercise is best for women. I do not believe that acrobatics, which include backbends are good for women.

EXERCISES which place emphasis on the stretch are fine.

These are apt to stretch ligaments which women should not have stretched; those which hold vital organs in place.

I do not believe in jumping exercises for the same reason.

I do believe that abdominal exercises are of the greatest value because a woman needs a strong abdominal wall for support.

START GRADUALLY

When a woman takes abdominal exercises she should start in gradually at first.

If she places too great a pull on this area before her muscles are strong enough, she is a candidate for trouble.

Exercises which contract the muscles but place emphasis on the stretch, are fine. They are relaxing and figure molding in a happy way.

AN INDIVIDUAL MATTER

Which exercises you take most often depend on your measurements. Daily exercise is such wonderful medicine if it is done in a sensible and individual way!

If you would like to have my "Essential Daily Routine for Women" send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 19 to Josephine Lowman, in care of this newspaper.

DOROTHY DIX SAYS

Married Men More Appeal Than the Eligible Boys

Dear Miss Dix: What is the fascination that married men seem to have for some girls?

I know a young woman who is handsome, intelligent, attractive in every way and who could have her choice of several young men, but she ignores them and wastes her time on married men, many of whom are dull and stupid and middle-aged and whom she would not look at if they were single.

Just at present she is breaking the heart of a wife by having a flirtation with her husband. How can you explain this vagary of the inconsistent sex?

AN ONLOOKER.

ANSWER: The lure of the married man for certain girls is the same old one that got the first woman in trouble. He is forbidden fruit. That is what makes her desire him and cause her to prefer him to all the nice safe eligible young men of her acquaintance.

LACKS GLAMOR

There is no thrill in meeting a single man downtown and having lunch with him in a respectable restaurant with everybody looking on and saying approvingly that that would be a nice match. But it is glamorous and romantic to meet a married man at some hole-in-the-wall place, for dinner, with the chances of being discovered and starting a scandal.

Then there is the girl who specializes in married men because she thinks that it proves her superior powers of fascination to be able to take a man away from his wife.

She misjudges her prowess, however. The easiest animal in the world to bag is a married man who is bored with domesticity and who knows that he is protected by his marriage certificate from getting hurt.

Then there is the girl whose vanity demands that she be admired of all men, married or single, rich or poor, a gentleman or a boor.

Paris Designer Says Thumbs Down On S.A. Models for Show

JOHANNESBURG, July 4—(CP)—South African models are angry about the forthcoming visit of eight Paris models to the Union to display products for the South African wool board. They have their nails sharpened for Christian Dior.

They say that when the display was first proposed Dior intended to use four South African girls and four from Paris.

"Photographs and measurements of six South African models were sent to him," they say. "He rejected them all, however, saying that their waistlines were 'too thick.'"

The waists of the South African girls averaged 25 inches; those of the French models 20 inches.

At a similar display in Australia Dior used four Australian and four French models. He went personally to Australia and when he found the Australians not slim enough he made them reduce to fit his requirements.

In Australia, there are 7,000 species of plants found in no other country.

City Author Returns from Convention

Edmonton author Sheila MacKay Russell returned to the city by TCA plane Monday after attending Canadian Nurses' Association annual convention in Vancouver.

She was kept busy during sessions there, lecturing and autographing her recently published book "A Lamp Is Heavy."

Laugh-packed and human, Mrs. Russell's story of trials and tribulations of a student nurse, sold out in six weeks. She sandwiched the writing of this book, her first, between her time-consuming roles of assistant director of public health nursing in Alberta and assistant director of health education for the province.

Wife of a local lumberman, G. W. Russell, the noted author has finished a draft of her second book "The Living Earth."

Bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H Thorogood. Bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Watson, all of Edmonton.

Bride's dress was fashioned with nylon sheer round neck and overlay of embossed cutwork flowers on the bodice. It featured long sheer lily-point sleeves.

Her silk embroidered fingertip veil fell from coronet studded with rhinestones and pearls. She wore a double strand of pearls, gift of the bridegroom and carried a crescent cascade of red Briar Cliffe roses, stephanotis and gardenias.

Mrs. John B. Lowes attended her sister as bridesmaid. Her floorlength gown was of pale yellow sheer nylon over satin. It was styled with round neck, cap sleeves, wide pleated band of yellow satin at the waist. She carried a crescent cascade of Talisman roses and Kokomo carnations.

TRAIN BEARER

Little Lorna McDonald was train bearer. Her pink embroidered nylon sheer was trimmed with lace and had floor length bouffant skirt. Pink bandeau on her head was caught at each side with stephanotis. She wore a small gold cross and corsage of tiny rose buds.

Reginald Lewin was best man. Ushers were Donald Thorogood and Ralph Miller.

Wedding music was played by Herbert Wild and as the bridal party left the church Mrs. A. Stott pealed the church bells.

75 GUESTS

Profusion of pink, red and white peonies, sweet rocket and Japanese lilac decorated Acacia Hall for wedding reception. Receiving the 75 guests, Mrs. Thorogood wore a stone blue crepe dress. She chose a mauve hat and gloves and corsage of pink carnations.

Bridegroom's mother wore a navy blue crepe redingote ensemble. Pink flower nestled in the navy bow of her matching hat.

Bride's table was decorated with variety of colors from red to cream roses arranged with maiden hair fern. Three-tired wedding cake was flanked by pink and white candles in silver holders.

Toast to the bride was proposed by L. L. Lister.

Following honeymoon through U.S.A. to the Pacific coast, newlyweds will make their home in Edmonton.

For travelling, bride wore silver grey wool gabardine suit and grey shoes. She chose a pink off the face hat with matching gloves and navy accessories. Her corsage was of pink carnations.

Ina Rae Pledges Wedding Vows

Guests from North Dakota, U.S.A., were present at Highlands United Church recently, when Miss Ina Rae became the bride of Vernon Earl Cass in an evening ceremony.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Rae of Edmonton, bride was given in marriage by her father.

Bridegroom is son of Mrs. F. Cass and the late Mr. Cass of Edmonton.

Carrying a bouquet of red roses and white sweet peas, bride's gown was of white satin featuring a net yoke and fitted bodice. Her fingertip illusion veil was gathered to a nylon braided coronet.

Miss Annette Johnns, bridesmaid wore peach nylon, with pale blue bandeau and mittens. She carried a colonial bouquet.

Wedding music was played by Miss Naomi Skinner. Anthony Blamonte sang "Because."

Ceremony was performed by Rev. F. W. Sams. Attending the bridegroom as best man was Robert Welby. Hilliard Cass and David Rae ushered guests to their seats.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Rae chose an afternoon dress of grey crepe with pink accessories, and a rose corsage.

Bridegroom's mother wore printed silk with grey accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

Fifty guests attended the reception at Club Anton. Tulle formed the base of the four-tiered wedding cake which centred the floral decorations on the bride's table.

Pink and grey ensemble was bride's travelling costume for the honeymoon trip to Jasper. Mr. and Mrs. Cass will reside in Edmonton on their return.

Mary Johnson Weds Arnold Allan Bowie

WETASKIWIN, July 5.—Of interest in Grimshaw was the wedding of Miss Mary Johnson and Arnold Allan Bowie in First United Church here.

Bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Johnson, pioneer residents of Grimshaw. Bridegroom is son of Mr. E. Bowie and the late Mrs. Bowie of Wetaskiwin.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was gowned in traditional white satin with full skirt and lily-point sleeves. Her veil of illusion net was caught by a coronet of small white flowers. She carried a bouquet of deep red roses.

Pale blue taffeta was chosen by Miss Ellen Johnson, who attended her sister as bridesmaid. Multi colored roses formed her bouquet.

Dr. M. Jewett Parr performed the ceremony. Mrs. W. Groves sang "Because."

Best man was P. W. Feanehough. Clair Provost and Ray Smith were ushers.

JACOBY on Canasta

By OSWALD JACOBY

Whenever your partner makes a very unusual play, stop and think for a second. Has your partner suddenly lost his mind? That, of course, is always a possibility.

If your partner looks reasonably sane, give him credit for having a reason for his play. If he's a good player, he probably has a good reason. If you can work out the meaning of the play you can cooperate better with your partner.

For example, not long ago I watched a game in which two women were partners against two men. One of the men properly, but not gallantly, froze the pack fairly early. Both sides discarded cautiously for three rounds, after which one of the women melded four kings from her hand and discarded safely.

Since her side already had melded four aces, this was a very unusual play. She didn't need a base of four natural cards; the four aces would have served as a base. The meld certainly didn't help her discard. If anything, it helped the opponents find safe discards.

Unfortunately, her partner didn't bother to think of the reason for this unusual play. The partner happened to have a hand that was almost set for melding out; and she persevered doggedly until she finally did meld out. In the meantime, the opponents got the pack and made several canastas, three of them natural.

What do you think was the meaning of the meld of four kings? If made by a sensible player (and it was), it could have only one meaning: "Partner, I have deliberately weakened our power to take the discard pile. The reason is that I am raady to meld out. help me make a canasta immediately. As soon as you do, I can meld out."

The partner could have made a canasta of kings on that same round. At the very next play, the one who had put down the kings would have melded out. Their opponents would not have won the pack and would have lost points on the hand instead of winning several thousand points.

Once you start to watch for points like this your game will improve immensely. You will find yourself understanding why your partner makes certain plays and what type of hand he must have. That will lead you to understand what type of hands they have. It's almost as good as having X-ray eyes!

Q. I was dealt a red three at the beginning of a hand. I put it on the table and drew a card to replace it. The replacement was a red three. I put that on the table and drew another card and that also was a red three. I put that on the table and then wanted to draw three cards—one for each red three. The opponents said I was entitled to only one card. Who was right?

A. Your opponents were right. Forget about the red threes for a moment. Remember that when you draw a card at the beginning of the game, you usually have eleven cards in your hand and you add one card, making twelve cards. Then you discard, leaving yourself with eleven cards once more. That is the basic principle of drawing and discarding. When you have finished with your draw and your discard, you should have only eleven cards in your hand.

Now let's get back to those red threes. When you put your first red three down, you have only ten cards in your hand. Now you get another red three and put it down—and you still have those same ten cards. This happens again, and you still have the same ten cards. You are entitled to only one card to bring you up to eleven cards. That finishes the business of replacing the red threes. You now have a normal hand of eleven cards and you are entitled to your regular draw—either from the stock pile or from the discard pile.

INDEPENDENCE DAY was marked yesterday by American residents of Edmonton. Nearly 200 attended picnic at Victoria Park and the man who is getting all the service is George Badger, Los Angeles. Serving lunch are Mrs. E. R. Barnett, Bakersfield, Calif., and Mrs. C. R. Phillips, New Orleans. Picnic was planned by Mrs. Cecil R. Phillips.

Korean Fight Not Decisive For West, Says Churchill

LONDON, July 5.—(AP)—Winston Churchill said last night that come what may in Korea, the western world "shall not be trampled down into serfdom and ruin." He emphasized that he does not believe a third world war is inevitable.

In an Independence Day address at a dinner of the American Society in London, Britain's Conservative party leader declared:

"It certainly seems to me that there would be a better hope of a general settlement with Soviet Russia following upon the defeat of aggression in Korea on a localized scale than would be possible after another Communist success.

"The new fact in relations with Russia is that we have been told that the Kremlin oligarchy knows how to make the atomic bomb.

"Nothing would more surely prepare the way for a third world war than that we should drift on while large quantities of these devasting weapons are accumulated."

LEADER CONFIDENT

Churchill was confident Communist Imperialism "surpassing anything dreamed of by the Czars," would be halted.

"The situation is not appreciably worse than it was before the aggression in Korea began but I always held that it was bad enough already—it all depends at what point you start to think."

If what the Communists had begun in Korea should end in a triumph [illegible] a third world war may be forced upon us, or even hurled at us."

FRENCH MUSIC PITCH PERTURBS SCIENCE GROUP

PARIS, July 5 — (AP) — All French music will be lower pitched from now on if the Academy of Sciences has its way.

The Academy voted unanimously yesterday to recommend pitching "A" at 432 vibrations a second. By a decree of Feb. 16, 1859, still in effect, "A" was put at 425 vibrations. The smaller number of vibrations would mean a lower pitch.

In many other countries pitch of "A" is up to 439 vibrations.

French musicians have been worried by a tendency, especially among foreign musicians, to keep raising the pitch.

Tethered Cow Takes Death Bolt To 3 Picnickers

HAMDEN, Conn., July 5—(UP)—A lightning bolt killed three picnickers and injured seven others yesterday as they gathered under a tree to eat their lunch.

The bolt struck the tree and apparently [illegible] a cow's tethering chain attached to the tree trunk and lying on the ground near the group.

Those killed were Otis Dorman, 22; his sister Arthurina, 16, and a companion, Betty Lyon, 16, all of Hamden.

British Trade Policy Same For Canada

LONDON, July 5.—(Reuters)—Sir Stafford Cripps, chancellor of the exchequer, told Parliament yesterday that it will remain government policy to get as much of Britain's requirements from Canada as she can afford to pay for in dollars.

Conservative Ronald Russell had urged him to make more dollars available for imports from Canada, in view of the increase in the value of British exports to Canada during the first four months of 1950 compared with 1949.

The chancellor added that a final decision on the level of imports from the dollar area during the next 12 months has not been decided.

Russell further urged him to give the Canadians "sympathetic and tangible evidence that we will make it worth while for them to buy our imports at the rate they have been doing."

Cripps replied that the government is in close touch with the Canadian government on this matter, and he did not think Russell need worry himself about it.

Youth Jailed On 2 Counts

GRANDE PRAIRIE, July 5.—Convicted on a charge of taking a cab without the owner's permission, Ben Bruens, 19, of Edmonton, was sentenced to two months' imprisonment when he appeared before Magistrate A. E. Galway here Tuesday.

Also convicted of entering a licenced premise while still a minor, Bruens was sentenced to one month imprisonment. The two sentences will run concurrently at Fort Saskatchewan jail.

Bruens pleaded guilty to both charges.

According to his own testimony, he took the cab from in front of the cab stand without the knowledge of the owner, V. Macklin. With a girl companion, he drove about 14 miles north when the car hit the ditch and rolled over.

The two were thrown clear and not seriously injured.

Russian Officials Leave Turkey

JAPS REFUSE TO SURRENDER AFTER 5 YEARS

HONOLULU, July 5—(AP)—Five years after the end of the Second World War, 21 Japanese on a tiny mid-Pacific island are still holding out against American forces.

A Navy communique today said the island—Antahan in the northern Marianas—is so small and unimportant it won't risk sending a landing party to take it by force.

Holding the navy at bay are two Japanese soldiers, five sailors and 14 fishermen. They man machineguns concentrated around Antahan's harbor entrance.

The U.S. Navy has tried everything short of war to get them out.

Pamphlets and food have been dropped from planes. Boats circle the island broadcasting over loud-speakers that the Second World War is over.

The Japanese are not convinced.

Shoot-To-Kill Hunt Is On

FUERSTENFELDBRUCK, Germany, July 5.—(UP)—More than 2,000 American military and German police were given "shoot to kill" orders today in a search for two young American desperadoes who broke out of the U. S. Air Force prison here Monday night.

Pvt. Lon Stephens of Pampa, Tex., and Cpl. John Vetter, 20, of Mowbridge, S.D., were believed to have stolen guns from the prison arsenal after escaping from their cell through a hole they ripped in the ceiling.

It was the third jailbreak for Vetter, serving 20 years for robbery, and the fourth for Stephens, serving a five-year term on a similar charge.

This morning, an air force soldier reported the pair held him up at gunpoint and stole his wallet. Prison officials warned police the men were "desperate and dangerous."

"Shoot to kill if necessary," authorities said.

Strikes Threaten British Industry

Meat Handlers, Railroaders, Coal Miners Are Affected

LONDON, July 5.—(Reuters)—Three growing strikes last night threatened to disorganize vital sections of British industry, food distribution, rail transportation and coal mining.

With 2,000 troops drafted into London's central meat market, the strike over wages which last week robbed many Londoners of their meat ration was held in check. Labor Minister George Isaacs said in the House of Commons that the stoppage is a breach of agreement, and urged the 3,000 strikers to resume work.

Two hundred slaughterhouse workers in North London joined the strike yesterday and a threat of sympathetic action by London dock workers remained.

In Scotland, a strike in protest against refusal of the state-owned coal industry to grant another 15 shillings (about $2.30) a week to 400,000 lower-paid workers swept through more mines. By nightfall, 10,244 miners at 40 mines were idle.

ALSO RAIL STRIKE

A strike of 200 railworkers at Banbury, 70 miles from London, in opposition to changes in their pensions plan, may spread next weekend. Eight hundred locomotive engineers and firemen at Paddington, main London terminus for west-country trains, voted to join the strike Friday night.

The meat strike also affects deliveries of butter, margarine, bacon and eggs to hundreds of London stores. Troops may tackle this distribution task Wednesday.

The strikers say they object to delay in handling a claim for a wage increase of 19s a week.

Boxer Baer Clawed By Lion

ROME, July 5.—(AP)—Buddy Baer, former boxer, yesterday suffered a flesh wound in the arm from one of 22 lions gathered here from MGM's production of "Quo Vadis."

Baer was clawed when he got his arm too close to the lion's cage. He will be out of hospital in a few days.

Now! Proof that

2 Years' research by LEADING UNIVERSITIES proves that test groups brushing teeth right after eating with Colgate Dental Cream showed amazing reduction in tooth decay!

Under the direction of eminent dental authorities, one group of college men and women always brushed their teeth with Colgate Dental Cream right after eating—while another group followed their usual dental care. The average of the group using Colgate's as directed, and using Colgate's exclusively, was a startling reduction in the number of new cavities—far less tooth decay. The other group developed new cavities at a much higher rate.

Research shows that decay is caused by mouth acids which are at their worst after meals. When you brush your teeth with Colgate's right after eating, you help remove mouth acids before they can harm enamel.

FURTHER PROOF FROM SCHOOL CHILDREN
Leading Canadian dentists examined and directed over 8,000 school children in corrective dental habits. In addition to diet changes where required, the children were asked to brush their teeth after each meal.
The results! 16% fewer children with tooth decay! . . . Cavities dropped from an average of 5 per child to just over 3! . . . 53% more children received dental care that prevented either loss of teeth or serious dental troubles later in life! . . . The number of children with no defects—increased by 200%!

CLEANS YOUR BREATH AS IT CLEANS YOUR TEETH!
Scientific tests prove that in 7 out of 10 cases, Colgate's instantly stops bad breath that originates in the mouth! Colgate's active penetrating foam gets into hidden crevices between teeth—helps clean out decaying food particles—stops stagnant saliva odors—removes the cause of much bad breath!

HELP YOUR CHILDREN AVOID TOOTH DECAY!
Insist that your children always brush their teeth right after eating with Colgate Dental Cream. They'll love Colgate's delicious double-minty flavor, so it's easy to get them to use Colgate's correctly.

THERE OUGHTA BE A LAW— By Fagaly and Shorten

HOW OFTEN DOES IT HAPPEN — WHEN ALL NIGHT YOU'RE RUNNING HOT.
I WIN AGAIN! SHALL WE CONTINUE, BOYS? HEH! HEH!
OKAY! JUST ONE MORE AROUND AND I QUIT!
SAME HERE! I HAVEN'T TAKEN A *% POT ALL NIGHT!
YOU STICK IT OUT FOR ONE LAST ROUND — AND GIVE BACK ALL YOU GOT!
YOU LOSE AGAIN, CRINGELY! TOO BAD! THAT CLEANS YOU—

Coffee Shop
Dollar Spinners

On a main Edmonton highway, with lots of parking space, this Coffee Lunch Bar is excellently located for the large volume of traffic which daily passes. Doing a daily turnover of $70.00. This would provide a good living, with ample prospects of increasing present turnover. The rent at $45.00 per month is low and a FIVE YEAR LEASE gives the required security. Buy it for $3,900—plus approx. $200 stock.

Have You Got An Eye For Business?
Coffee—Fish and Chip

This type of business is on the up and up. The demand for Fish and Chips is increasing daily, plus the fact that a large amount of carry-out business can be easily developed, requiring no extra seating capacity. We have listed a business of this nature excellently located for this type of business. At present doing a $90.00 daily average turnover. Rent $55.00 monthly with a good lease arrangement. Total price is $6,300 plus approx. $200.00 stock. Cash payment requiring $4,000.
